ARTICLE VIII

1. The provisions of Articles VI and VII of this Agreement shall not prevent the Government of either country from imposing at any time on the importation of any article a charge equivalent to an internal tax imposed in respect of like domestic article or in respect of a commodity from which the imported article has been produced or manufactured in whole or in part.

2. Moreover, the provisions of Articles VI and VII shall not be construct to embrace such reasonable fees, charges or exactions, imposed at any time by the Government of either country in connection with the documentation any shipment, as are commensurate with the cost of the services performed.

ARTICLE IX

Sawed lumber and timbers, telephone, trolley, electric-light, and telegraph poles of wood, and bundles of shingles, the growth, produce or manufacture Canada, imported into the United States of America, shall not be required be marked to indicate their origin in any case where the imported article is the same class or kind as articles which were imported into the United States of America in substantial quantities during the five-year period immediately preceding January 1, 1937, and were not required during such period to be marked to indicate their origin.

ARTICLE X

1. No prohibition, restriction or any form of quantitative regulation, whether or not operated in connection with an agency of centralized control, shall be imposed or maintained in Canada on the importation or sale of any article growth, produce or manufacture of the United States of America enumerated and described in Schedule I, or in the United States of America on the imports tion or sale of any article the growth, produce or manufacture of Canada enum erated and described in Schedule II, except as otherwise expressly provided the said Schedules.

2. The foregoing provision shall not apply to quantitative regulations whatever form which may hereafter be imposed by the Government of either country on the importation or sale of any article the growth, produce or manufacture of the facture of the other, in conjunction with governmental measures or measures under governmental authority

(a) operating to regulate or control the production, market supply, quality of price of the like article of domestic growth, production or manufacture, of

(b) operating to increase the labour costs of production of the like article of domestic growth, production or manufacture;

Provided, however, that the Government proposing to impose any such quantitative regulation shall have redisculting a little of the control o tative regulation shall have satisfied itself, in the case of measures described subparagraph (a) of this paragraph subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, that such quantitative regulation is necessary to secure the effective operation of such measures, and, in the case of measures described in subparagraph (h) described in subparagraph (b), that such measures are causing the domestic production of the article concerned to be injuriously affected by imports which constitute an abnormal property of constitute an abnormal proportion of the total consumption of such article prelation to the proportion grandial relation to the proportion supplied in the past by foreign countries.

ial al graph and sh ment ; nent he ot

o ter witin I tates

o po

escri d va Value, leterr gree rovic

of suc (a) (b)

> (c) (d)

dere TWO Micle TOVIE (a)

(b) (c) (d)

encie ther odus