

Canada and the O.A.S.

WARREN, Michael K.

A graduate of the University of Toronto (B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. studies), Mr. Warren taught at Queen's University before joining the Department of External Affairs. He has served abroad in London and is currently Alternate Permanent Observer of Canada to the Organization of American States in Washington.

Les Nations-Unies et ses divers organismes

GRONDIN, Gilles

(Voir la note biographique en page 12.)

Canada and NATO

HAMMOND, T.C.

Mr. Hammond was Deputy Director, Arms Control and Disarmament Division, 1969-72, Alternate Governor for Canada on Board of Governors of the International Atomic Energy Agency, Vienna, 1972-76, Director Arms Control and Disarmament Division, 1976-78, and is currently Director of the Defence Relations Division.