

3. A request may be made for assistance in securing the confiscation of proceeds of crime. Such assistance shall be given in accordance with the law of the Requested State by whatever means are appropriate. This may include enforcing an order made by a court in the Requesting State or submitting the request to the competent authorities for the purpose of seeking a confiscation order and the enforcement thereof in the Requested State.
4. Proceeds of crime confiscated pursuant to this Treaty shall accrue to the Requested State, unless otherwise agreed in a particular case.
5. In the application of this Article the rights of bona fide third parties shall be respected.
6. The Requesting State shall promptly inform the Requested State of any circumstances, including any other enforcement action, which may affect the request or its execution or which may make it inappropriate to proceed with giving effect to it.
7. For the purpose of this Treaty:
  - a) "proceeds of crime" means any property that is derived or realised directly or indirectly by any person from an offence or offences, or the value of any such property;
  - b) "property" includes money and all kinds of moveable or immoveable and tangible or intangible property, and includes any interest in such property; and
  - c) "restraint" means seizure, attachment or other measures for the prevention of dealing in or transfer or disposal of property.
