

Article 10: General Consultations

1. The Parties shall at all times endeavour to agree on the interpretation and application of this Agreement.

2. The Parties shall make every attempt, including through cooperation, consultations and the exchange of information, to address any matter that might affect its operation.