

In conclusion, Minister Kelleher indicated that Federal officials will be discussing the finding with the Canadian companies to consider Canada's response to this final determination.