

14. Every design to be protected must be registered before publication; and, after Registration, the name of the proprietor, who must be a resident of Canada, shall appear upon the article to which his design applies; if the manufacture be a woven fabric, by printing upon one end; if another substance, at the edge or upon any convenient parts, the letters Rd., with the mention of the year of the Registration; the mark may be put upon the manufacture by making it on the material itself, or by attaching thereto a label containing the proper marks.

15. The author of the design shall be considered the proprietor thereof, unless he has executed the design for another person, for a good or valuable consideration, in which case such other person shall be considered the proprietor, and shall alone be entitled to register it; but his right to the property shall only be co-extensive with the right which he may have acquired.

16. Every design shall be assignable in law, either as to the whole interest or any undivided part thereof, by an instrument in writing, which assignment shall be recorded in the office of the Minister of Agriculture, on payment of the fees hereinafter provided; And every proprietor of a design may grant and convey an exclusive right, under any copyright, to make, use and vend, and to grant to others to make, use and vend such design within and throughout Canada, or any part thereof, for the unexpired term thereof or any part thereof; which exclusive grant and conveyance shall be called a license, and shall be recorded in the same manner and within the same delay as assignments.

17. During the existence of the right (whether it be of the entire or partial use of such design,) no person shall, without the license in writing of the registered proprietor, apply such design, or a fraudulent imitation thereof, to the ornamenting of any article of manufacture, &c., for the purposes of sale, or publish, sell, or expose for sale or use any article of manufacture, &c., to which such design, or fraudulent imitation thereof shall have been applied, under penalty of not less than twenty dollars, and not exceeding one hundred and twenty dollars, to the proprietor of the design, and costs—to be recovered by the registered proprietor, or his assignee, by suit in any Court, having jurisdiction in suits of a like amount.

18. Every person placing the words "registered," or the letters "Rd.," upon any unregistered article, or upon any article the copyright of which has run out, or advertising the same for sale as a registered article, or unlawfully selling, publishing, or exposing for sale such article, knowing the same to have been fraudulently stamped or that the copyright thereof has expired, shall forfeit for every offense a sum not less than four dollars and not exceeding thirty dollars, to be recovered in the same manner as penalties under the next preceding section, and that by any person whatever, who shall receive one-half the
