

[English]

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order. This is the end of the question period. Debate.

Mr. McCuish: Mr. Speaker, I wonder if you might consider it as being six o'clock and give me an opportunity to address the House tomorrow?

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order, please. Is it agreed to call it six o'clock?

[Translation]

Is the Hon. Member for Manicouagan (Mr. Maltais) rising on a point of order?

Mr. Maltais: I am rising on a point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The Address—Mr. Deniger

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order. The Hon. Member for Manicouagan.

Mr. Maltais: Mr. Speaker, I think since we have five minutes left, perhaps I may take this opportunity to comment on a few points that were raised by the Member for Bow River (Mr. Taylor)—

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order. No, that is not possible. The House has agreed to call it six o'clock. If the House does not agree—

[English]

It being 6 p.m., this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at eleven o'clock a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

At 6 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
