

I knew all the time that it was in '99 that (in the fall) that I first saw you on the floor of the Drill Hall - You were then, I think a Purgawh, & I can remember it as if it were yesterday - I hope to produce that I am not approaching the age when one is prone to be so prejudiced with the past! I don't feel that I am! As a matter of fact I was in the ranks of the Regt when it was the R. C.
Battalion of G. A., in 1889, having enlisted in 1887.
With a memory as acute as yours you must have
