

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF THE LATE

DONALD ROSS, ESQ.

On the nineteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, before me, William Ross, and Henry Blake Wright, the undersigned Notaries Public, duly commissioned and sworn, in and for that part of the Province of Canada, heretofore constituting the Province of Lower Canada, residing in the City of Montreal, in the said Provinces, personally came and appeared

DONALD ROSS, of the Parish of Montreal, in the District of Montreal, Esquire, Seigneur of the Seignior of St. George, in the said District, who being in good bodily health and of sound mind, memory, and understanding—as appeared to us by his manner and conversation—and being desirous to provide for the administration of the property, of which he shall die possessed, hath requested us, the said notaries, to receive and reduce into writing this his last Will and Testament, in respect thereof which the said William Ross, one of the said notaries, in the presence of the said Henry Blake Wright, the other notary, have taken down as made, dictated, and named, fait dicte et nomme, by the said Testator, word for word, as follows:

The said Testator doth hereby give, devise and bequeath unto his beloved wife, Jane Ross, during her natural life, in addition to, and over and above what she is entitled to by her marriage contract, the yearly interest to accrue at his death on the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pounds, current money of Canada, together with the enjoyment of all Testator's household furniture (as per inventory taken by said Testator) including plate and plated ware, and all other articles in the house and premises, occupied by the Testator at his death (the philosophical instruments to be carefully preserved for the Ross
