

ART.	RUSSIA.
since the the beco s.	{ Battle of Pul- tava gained by Pe- ter I. Battle of Pruth, lost by Peter I.
..... op in ame- road- o De death for usc.	{ Second voyage of Pe- ter I. thru'g out Europ.
s of kon ions the are em- ille, can, s.— oix and	{ Peace of Nys- tadt.
the the as- En- ces ka	{ Cath- rine I., Emp.
... De ne" re in in re e f	{ PETER II., Emp.

A. D.	GERMAN.	ENGLAND.	FRANCE.	SPAIN.	THE CHURCH.
1710
1711	{ Chris. VI., Emp.		{ Battle of Denain gained by Villars over Prince Eu- gene.	{ Battle of Villa-vicio- sa gained by Vendome
1713			Treaty of Utrecht.
1714		{ House of Brunswick. GEORGE I. King.	Peace of Rastadt.
1715	{ Battles of Peterwar- dein and Bel- grade gained by Pr. Eugen. over the Turks. Passow- rowitz { Peace.	{ The son of James II. at- tempts to recover the throne.	{ Death of Louis XIV.—Under his reign, styled the Augustan Age of French literature, flourished in France a constellation of em- inent personages, such as Condé, Turenne, Luxembourg, Vanban, Villars, Duquesne, Tourville, Colbert, Bossuet, Fenelon, Mas- sillon, Pascal, Descartes, Cor- neille, Racine, &c.—Louis XV., King.—The Duke of Orleans, Reg- ent.
1716			Financial Scheme of Law.
1718			{ The Quad- ruple Al- liance.
1721					{ INNOCENT XIII., Pope.—Pe- ter the Great expels the Jos- uits from Russia.
1724					{ BENEDICT XIII., Pope.—He confirms the Bull Unigenitus in a council assembled at Rome.—Card. de Noailles submits to the Holy Sec.— The Pope condemns the do- crees of the Parliaments of France forbidding the cele- brat. of the feast of St. Greg- ory VII.—The Jansenists propagate liturgic novelties in many dioceses in France.
1726			{ Ministry of Card. Floury.
1727		{ GEORGE II., Kg.			{ CLEMENT XII., Pope.—The sophist Voltaire is entering upon his long career of lit- erary and immoral triumphs by an unequalled hypocrisy, corruption, and infamy.— Clement XII. condemns Freemasonry.
1730
1733			{ War of the Polish succe- sion.		