FIGHTING SPIRIT NOT NOTICED AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—(Special.)—Parliamentary life in Ottawa is like a "painted ship upon a painted ocean." The house of commons is becoming as jejune as the senate, but it lacks the senatorial courage to adjourn for a month when it has nothing to say and nothing to do. It meets every day, just as some one rings the bell of the St. Lawrence Market, Toronto, at 9 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the evening, or fires off a cannon every day at high noon on parliament hill, namely, because it is the custom of the country. When opportunity offers the government invites the house to go into committee of supply, and the invitation is accepted without debate.

BEAUTIFUL HELLENISM TOO SHALLOW TO ENDURE

Christianity Has Influenced Greek Life, Declares German Professor at University.

"Christianity and Hellenism" was the theme dealt with by Dr. Ernst Von Dobschütz, professor of New Testament Exegesis of Halle University, Germany, and this year exchange professor at Harvard University, in his lecture before a large audience of theological students in the physics building last evening. Hellenism was defined as the form of Christianity which grew out of the Jewish sources, when influenced by the culture and philosophy of the Greeks. The shallowness of the Greek religion, beautiful as it was, became apparent to the Hellenes, and they endeavored to build up something better. Christianity as presented to them by St. Paul was modified until we came to recognize it under a new name, Hellenism.

The old Hellenistic culture, he said, had long since passed out of Greek life, but the Christian element has and will for all time remain an abiding force.
