Leafs Had Trouble Winning the Double-Header Yester-header from the Dinnites yesterday and look here. Indeed, it is announced sent them away without a victory in four old double steal was worked successfully. Twombley scoring.

The Dunn crew added another in the second. Dunn singled safely and Sweeney found a hole in the infield to put a hit thru. Arragon's single counted the run.

The Leafs waited until the third and then breezed over two runs to tle the score. Cook walked and rode home on Eath's double. Bath stole third and scored when Gilbert beat out one.

The Clymer Clouters went to the front in the fifth and it looked all over. Williams supplied his usual homer for the run.

Charlie Pick looked the batting order over and found that seven men had to hit before it was his turn to swat and thought he would steal a march. He hiked for the club house to march. He hiked for the club house to get dressed. All the seven batted and the Dunnites had two on base and two out, but no Pick was in sight. He was finally dug up and came on the field after five minutes' delay with his shoes untied. Manning was chased after giving Pick one ball, and Luque sent in. Pick was walked and the side retired when Graham captured Bates' nasty bounder for the third out.

PROVIDENCE TODAY.

History is repeating itself. In 1902, when Toronto and Buffalo had that memorable fight for the pennant, it only being decided on the last day here, when Heling decided on the last day here, when Jimmy Gardner pitched both games for the Leafs at Diamond Park, and not only won them, but brought the pennant here for Ed. Barrow and his players, it was Frovidence who were the Leafs opponents on that day, while Jersey City broke even at Buffalo. Today finds the stuation the same so far as the opponents are concerned, but it is Providence and not Toronto who are fighting it out with Buffalo for the pennant. However, the Leafs will have considerable to say about where the flag will fly next season. as they engage the Grays in double-headers today and tomorrow at the Stadium Manager Clymer has Luque, McTigue and Herbert to select from for today's double-header, while tomorrow either Manning or Cook

The two Toronto clubs are owned, is Clymer Cherries won another double- not at all satisfied with the outsent them away without a victory in four efforts. The first game went eleven innings before the Leafs won, 4 to 3. The second was won by the same score, Richmond staging a thrilling finish, scoring two runs in the seventh.

It took the Leafs eleven innings to win the first game, 4 to 3. They looked to have it won entering the ninth, but Cook faltered and Dunnites rushed over a run to tie it. Rath and Gilbert produced hits to score the winning run in the lith. The Richmonds forged to the front right at the start. In the first inning a walk started the trouble. Twombley got it and went to third on Pick's hit, and then the old double steal was worked successfully, Twombley scoring.

Cook got into trouble in the 9th and Richmond tied it up. Dunn walked and stole, and went to third on a sacrifice. Healey, batting for Cottrell, brought the would be decided at the Riverdale Bath lined over short in the 11th, went of third when Dunn fumbled, and scored at the Junction.

BISONS AND GRAYS

Gain on Royals.

At Buffalo—(International)—With only two more days to play before the season ends the Bisons retained their lead of 2 points over the Champion Providence Grays last night, as the result of an 11-inning game, which was ended by darkness with the score tied at 3 to 3. The teams will be unable to play off the game as Providence goes to Toronto today to finish its season while Buffalo entertains Jersey City.

The Bisons started off with a three-run lead off Pennock, but Schultz, who succeeded him, kept them scoreless for the remainder of the encounter. The Grays scored in the fourth and tied the game in the ninth. The pitching on both sides, with the exception of Pennock's disastrous start, was of a high order, but the Grays' fielding was loose.
