GAMBLERS ARE PROTECTED BY COURTS OF U.S.

Gambling Houses Can Exist Only Because of Their Being Practically Shielded by Judiciary, Says Police Commissioner Waldo—Web is Tightening Around Gunmen.

BECKER WILL NOT TALK

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—(Can. Press.)—Police Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo to-night gave out his first formal statement relative to the Rosenthal case. The commissioner recommended an impartial and thorough investigation of the charges made relative to the alleged connection between the police and the gamblers. At the same time, he aimed a blow straight from the shoulder at the judiciary, declaring that gamblers can exist only because the gamblers can obtain what amounts to protection from the courts, and assuring that gamblers do much of the corrupt election work of the political parties, who place the judiciary on the bench.

While the issuance of the statement was the most important development to-day, it was reported at police headquarters that detectives were close upon the trail of "Lefty" Louie and "Gyp the Blood" Horowitz, the two remaining gangsters sought by the police in connection with the murder. Inspector Hughes spent his third day in personal charge of a force of detectives near Tannersville in the Catskills.

Men Partially Traced.
It is now known positively that "Gyp the Blood," "Lefty" Louie and "Whitely" Lewis were in Tannersville last week. Lewis left the others to go to Fleischman's, where he was captured. Horowitz and "Lefty" Louie, however, are believed to have remained in Tannersville.

WEATHER TO-DAY WILL BE IDEAL

Holiday Crowds Will Get a Real Touch of August is Weatherman's Opinion—Toronto's Big Outing Day.

Fair and warmer says the weather man, and the announcement will bring a measure of joy to the hearts of thousands of Torontonians who last night were rather resigned to the prospect of a chilly holiday. It was had enough that Sunday should bring reminders of October weather, with its rain and wind, but Civic Holiday!

DISSATISFACTION THROUGHOUT NORTH SAYS ROWELL

Returns From Trip With Great Impression of the Country and Its People—Liquor Law Should Either Be Enforced or Modified, is His Opinion.

DIDN'T VISIT BLIND PIGS

"Dissatisfaction with the present government's methods."
That's what Leader N. W. Rowell of the Liberal party found all thru the north country. His party returned from its tour Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. Mr. Rowell leaving at once for Woodstock, where The World talked over the phone to his last night.

"We were greatly delighted with the trip, the wide areas for settlement, the character of the country and the fertility of the soil were far greater than we expected."
"Politically?"
"We found dissatisfaction with present conditions and the administration of laws relating to settlement and liquor is much greater and more widespread than we could have expected. Not all are dissatisfied with the same thing, but there is dissatisfaction all round, and far greater than we expected. But we never found a more optimistic people. They are doing all they can to develop the country, and there is no doubt that the new roads under construction by the government will be of great value toward settlement of the north country and one step toward meeting a most urgent situation."

Changes Must Be Made.
"I think," he concluded, "that unless the government makes some radical changes in the north that it will undoubtedly go against them."
H. H. Lang, formerly mayor of Coburg, who accompanied N. W. Rowell's party on this trip, stated to The World last night that the journey had been a revelation to most of the men, he said, was the trip on the Transcontinental Railway as far as the Metagamet River.

Many Restaurants Here Are Breeding Places of Disease

Scores of Toronto Cafes and Cheap Eating Joints Are Filthy and Dirty—Many Instances of Food Unfit to Eat—A Clean-up Urgently Needed.

That conditions in some of the downtown restaurants are deplorable, that in fact, the majority of the eating-houses in Toronto are not kept as clean as they should be, nor nearly so, is a fact. Off Yonge-street, where dirt and filth are not so apparent, the meals one has to eat at times nauseate, and at other times tend to make one wish that they were back home and doing full justice to the dishes mother used to make. Along Queen-street, both east and west of Yonge-street, at certain restaurants on Bay-street, and at many on Yonge-street, one cannot get food served that is not either more or less rotten, fly specked or improperly cooked and served.

Bud Fisher in Town Denies All Rumors About Fishing Trip

"Bud" Fisher, the mother, father and all there is of the great and only "Mutt" and "Jeff," who have kept Daily and Sunday World readers laughing, chucking or smiling in and day out for, to these many moons, is in town and will draw for and talk to a host of friends at Shea's to-day and all this week. The World talked to "Bud" at the King Edward, where he was housed, last night. The World went after an interview, but it was like pulling teeth to get "Bud" to talk. Fisher shot out of the box, he was back at the "would-be" interviewer with, "For the love of Mike be reasonable." That was the way it went all the way thru. You would have thought that you were talking to "Mutt" and "Jeff" both at once.

"MUTT" FISHER, Cartoonist.
Fisher looks a lot more like "Mutt" than he does like "Jeff." In the first place, he has plenty of hair, and is lots taller than he is wide or thick. Also he is shy the top hat of the "plung" variety, which is an integral part of "Jeff," save only when "Mutt" has swatted it from its usual resting place on "Jeff's" glassy or glassy dome.

Negroes Barred From Progressive Convention

Racial Feeling is High
National Committee Labors 12 Hours and is Only Able to Decide One of Three Contests—White Men Refuse to Recognize Rights of Colored Brethren.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—(Can. Press.)—A troublous world confronted the new born Progressive party to-night at the end of its first day of political responsibility. After an almost continuous session that lasted from noon to-day until nearly midnight, the provisional national committee of the new party, adjourned weary and worn until nine o'clock Monday morning. In the long session the committee had heard arguments on three contests for seats in the convention and had decided one. In that one twelve negroes, contesting the seats of twelve white delegates from Alabama, were ruled out.

Ban on Negro Leaders.
The Florida contest resulted from the sending of separate delegations by white and negro conventions. The former sent six white men, the latter five negroes and a white man. The negro delegates claimed that H. L. Anderson, provisional national committeeman for Florida, suggested that they hold the separate conventions and produced documents purporting to prove it. Anderson, admitting that he barred the negroes from the white convention, defended the action, saying: "By no other course can success be secured in Florida. White men will not follow negro political leaders."
