

SAW PLAYMATES DROWN BUT AFRAID TO TELL

Little Boy Said Nothing of Fatality Till Next Morning.

A double drowning tragedy that occurred Friday afternoon in the Bay at the foot of Parliament street, was not revealed until Saturday afternoon when two boys, who were with the children drowned, broke the news to their parents. Ernest Smith, 111 Trinity street, and Larry Gutowski, 123 Trinity street, both aged 6 years, were drowned and their bodies were taken from the water by Mate Aykroyd at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. They were identified by the parents of the children at the morgue, where a coroner's inquest will likely be opened Monday.

Friday afternoon the young boys left their homes in the east end, unknown to their parents to play around the waterfront. They were seen in the vicinity of the British Actoness Limited, foot of Trinity street, and according to the police, were sent home Monday.

Taking off their shoes and stockings they proceeded to play on some boards in the water which they had made into a raft. Cecil Koloski, aged eight years, living at 341 Gillard place and Joseph Skebi, aged 5 years, of the rear of 44 Eastern avenue, were in the habit of stealing away from home each day to play along the waterfront and they made the raft. The young lads that were drowned were playing on a log, which turned over with them dumping them into the water which was several feet beyond their depth.

Cecil Koloski told his story of the tragedy to Acting Detective Thompson at noon Saturday. He said that when he and Skebi saw their playmates disappear under the water they became frightened and fled to their homes. The drowning children did not scream when the log rolled over them so far as the police could find out. The two children that ran home were the only witnesses of the affair.

When their missing two children did not return to their homes last night, the parents notified the police of East Dundas street station and gave them a description of how the children were dressed.

Mr. Koloski told the police that he had warned his boy about going to the waterfront, and on several occasions had thrashed Larry. Fearing that his father would thrash him, Larry said that was the reason he had said nothing of what had happened to his parents.

Saturday noon, when the father heard that the children had not been heard from, he asked his boy Larry if the four had been by the water. The boy replied that they had, and then told the story. The police were notified, and Acting Detective Thompson and Donaldson communicated with the life-saving station, and along with the Koloski boy, went to the scene of the drowning. Young Koloski was able to show the spot where the little boys had met their death, and with few minutes of dragging operations Mate Aykroyd recovered the bodies.

DIES FROM EFFECTS OF ALCOHOL POISONING

John Joseph Reilly, aged 33 years, of 346 Markham street, was found dead in bed at 111 Sorauren avenue Saturday afternoon. Reilly, along with a companion named Leo Muihal, who lives at the Sorauren avenue address, had been drinking heavily Friday night. They obtained two bottles of whiskey on a doctor's prescription during the day, and the police say they had been drinking heavily. Death is said to have been from alcoholic poisoning. The chief coroner was notified and he ordered an inquest to be held at the morgue.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC.

"Yes, or No!" at Alexandra.

One of the greatest outstanding successes of the present theatrical year in New York was "Yes, or No!", the story of a woman's home, which Edward H. Robins and his Players will present for the first time on any stage in Canada next week, commencing Monday evening. This play, which is a comedy-drama, is unique because of the fact that there are really two separate stories told at one and the same time, requiring two complete companies and two stage settings. Seats will be placed on sale Thursday morning at the theatre box office.

Not in many moons has any play been so well received as "Billeted," the famous English comedy which Edward H. Robins and his Players presented last week, and which will inaugurate the second big week of night at the Royal Alexandra Theatre. This comedy, which is so well known that the telling of the story would be of no interest now, is simply upheld by the records made by it in both New York and London, Eng., the only two cities in the world, outside of Toronto, in which it has been seen. The same cast as seen last week will again be in evidence, headed by Miss Winwood and Mr. Robins. There will be a special matinee on Monday (Donation Day), besides which the usual matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday.

"Mickey" Remains at the Grand. The photoplay, "Mickey," is breaking all records for a film production in Toronto. Commencing with a matinee today this remarkable screen drama will commence its fifth week at the Grand Opera House, and there appears to be no falling off in the patronage, which is capacity at every performance. "Mickey" not only is the talk of the town among lovers of high-class motion pictures, but it has provided a subject for discussion among all those interested in the motion picture business in Canada. Its popularity is attained solely thru its merits. It has a capacity at every performance. "Mickey" is a well-connected story, a fund of good, wholesome comedy, several exciting and sensational scenes, and is portrayed by an exceptionally clever cast. During the engagement at the Grand Opera House, a matinee will be given every day.

Shea's Hippodrome. Commencing with a matinee this afternoon, the management of Shea's Hippodrome presents "Gambling in Seoul," a picture the story of which was especially written for Mickey Travers, and affords her that opportunity for restrained emotional expression that makes such a universal favorite. The Crescent City will head the vaudeville bill in a melange of songs, music and music; Noble and the name is no misnomer. Nancy Boyer and Company will be featured in a one-act comedy sketch, entitled "Nancy's Law." Duval and Symonds are specialty artists; Leighton, singing comedienne; Hill and Ackerman, grotesque novelty comedians, and with the Pathe News and a Harold Lloyd comedy complete the bill.

At Loew's This Week. "The New Moon," featuring Norma Talmadge at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden this week, is a story of Russia and the fight of its women for their inherent right of personal liberty. It is not a war picture; it is a thrilling and timely, absorbing in theme, and of interest to the most blasé film patron. Herbert Brooks, the delectable card manipulator and prestidigitator, introducing his famous steel chest mystery, headlines the vaudeville, which also embraces such well-known features as Carl McCullough, impressions of stage celebrities; Malcolm and LaMar, dainty misses, in the pianola and song revue; Stan and Mae La Roi, with a new song and original patter; Whitney's Operatic Dolls, in a novelty act; and the Three Ambassadors, pantomimists and acrobats. Loew's British-Canadian Weekly cartoon, the "Mutt and Jeff" animated cartoons complete the bill.

Bert Lytell at Regent. This week Bert Lytell is starring at the Regent Theatre in "The Lion's Den," a story which is said to be of the finest type for this young and popular actor. It is about a man who tried some new methods of getting the congregation interested in church work. The way this is accomplished forms a most interesting narrative. The story was written by Frederick Orin Bartlett, and appeared in The Saturday Evening Post. It gives Mr. Lytell splendid opportunity to display his many remarkable talents and it is not of the ordinary "fighting parson" type. The play pictures the triumph of good over evil, the assertion of the better self in a man whose business has been his all. The musical program is particularly attractive in view of the fact that the orchestra will play selections from "On Lock."

A modern mystery, melodramatic romance mingled with many thrills is "The Crimson Gardenia," Rex Beach's famous story, pictured and produced by this famous novelist, appearing at the Allen this week. Owen Moore (Mary Pickford's husband), comes back to the screen again and leads in a fascinating role, as the leading lady. In addition to this big and thrilling feature, "There's Many Sins," a new Christie comedy, Allen Pictorial Life, Graphic showing the latest events of interest; "Stradella" overture by the incomparable Allen Orchestra; Luigi Romanelli directing, make up the balance of a highly interesting program. Last, but certainly not least, in importance, the Allen for ideal ventilation.

Gladys Leslie at Madison. Nobody who likes a good photoplay should miss seeing "Too Many Crumbs," which will form the feature at the Madison Theatre today, tomorrow and Wednesday. Gladys Leslie is the star of this comedy-drama, which is full of both thrills and amusing situations.

"The Unveiling Hand." Here you have summed up the striking features of "The Unveiling Hand," in which regal Kitty Gordon, supporting Irving Cummings and other capable players, will appear at the Strand Theatre today and this week. This story is a super-thriller, wonderfully gripping, and with fast action and a smashing climax. It is a story different to any ever seen on screen or stage, of the love of two and another $500 cash prize is offered for the Toronto member who makes the best showing during the same time.

There are hundreds of high-class men and women in all lines of business and in the professions who would be greatly benefited in many ways by the "Salesmanship Club." They would not only have an excellent opportunity to capture one of the big prizes, but would at the same time be gaining much valuable experience in meeting the public and in furthering their acquaintances. Selling The World should be an easy matter, for it is well worth the subscription price, and all that it takes to get subscriptions is a little energy on the part of club members.

Details of the Plan. For the benefit of any who might not have read the announcements of the past few days, The World explains what new credits are earned, and just what it is necessary to do in order to win one of the big awards.

In the first place, all that it is necessary to do to enter the campaign is to send in your name and address on one of the entry blanks, or, for that matter, it can be telephoned in. Five thousand credits are given a member upon entering. If a subscription for one length of time is sent in at the time of entering, 15,000 extra credits are given, in addition to the number that are allowed on the subscription. This gives any member an excellent start.

How Credits Are Earned. Credits are issued on paid-in-advance subscriptions to the Daily World for any length of time from three months to two years, in accordance with the schedule printed elsewhere in today's paper.

The members who earn the most credits during the campaign will, of course, be the winners of the largest awards, so it is truly a test of salesmanship. Those who are the most successful salesmen will be the most handsomely rewarded.

More Entries Wanted. There should be 400 or 500 entries. The large prize list and the big fee covered by The World warrants at least that number. Not more than a hundred of that number have so far entered. The campaign has just started, and does not close until Aug. 29. Send in your name today and make up your mind to capture your share of the big awards.

Spring Fever

What Is It?

THREE o'clock in the afternoon — and absolutely no "pep." You call it spring fever, but is it?

When you are constipated waste matter remains in the intestines, decays, forms poisons which are absorbed into your blood and carried by it to every cell in your body. When your cells are thus poisoned, of course you have no "pep."

Pills, salts, mineral waters, castor oil, etc., merely force the bowels to act, and make constipation and self-poisoning a habit. Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels.

Nujol prevents stagnation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally, thus removing the cause of constipation and self-poisoning. It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

Nujol helps Nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today and watch your "pep" come back.

Warning: Nujol is sold in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. All druggists. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.
