MR. THOMAS CRAW-FORD, Sergeant Van-couver Police Force, writes:

"I have been a great sufferer from catarrh, which I con-contracted over 17 years ago in Winnepeg. I tried many so-called catarrh cures, consulted physicians, catarrh specialists, and not one of them gave me more than a little temporary relief.

About two years ago, I tried Japan

nese Catarrh Cure, and since completing this treatment I have been permanently cured. I can highly recommend it— the first application relieved."

CATARRH CURE

There's a cure for every disease under the sun. The trouble is to find it. Most people have come to believe catarrh incurable, because it has taken so long to find out a real cure. There is only one, however, now. There is no doubt about that. It's called Japanese Catarrh Cure, and it permanently cures every person who uses it faithfully. It has done this time and time again. It is a perfectly faithfully. A Decent American.

London Daily Mail: The member for Taunton. Lieut.-Colonel Welby, M.P.. is in the habit of receiving long epistles from an American gentleman quite unkrown to him of the name of Williams, living at La Grange, Co. Cook, Illinois, The two have, among other amenities, exchanged photos.

In his last letter, dated Oct. 30, the Illinois correspondent assures the gallant colonel of his admiration for Mr. Chamberlain's policy in Africa, and adds that "England will be safe in placing her interests with the United States Government." At the Marquette Club banquet in honor of the President. 2000 guests rose and sang "God Save the Queen," and cheered England to the echo.

The American's letters are written on special notepaper, adorned by the American between which appear the words, "Blending the Colors, two Flags, one Blood, one Language," and in the centre are the lines, "True Americans are true British, True Americans, the Bond cannot be severed."
