DEATH WAS HIS BRIDE.

Two Hours After His Wedding Seymour Cotton Passed Away. Berlin, Ont., Oct. 22.-Seymour Cotton, a young Englishman, 25 years of age, died at Sheffield, Waterloo county, Monday, two hours after he had been married to Miss Lizzie Studiman, his sweetheart. Until two days before his marriage he had been in the best of health. He had been to Rockton Fair with his fiancee, and both were looking forward to the wedding. Cotton had made his home for some years with Mrs. Studiman, the mother of the bride. Last Friday he complained of feeling ill, and a physician was summoned, who told him that he was suffering from appendicitis. On Saturday he was worse, and Miss Studiman decided that if he was to die she would like him to pass into the great beyond as her husband. A minister—Rev. Mr. Culp—was sent for, and on Satur-

Wheat and Pork Prices Cause Consider. able Comment Among Farmers.

There was a fairly good market this morning of all commodities excepting grain. The rise in the price of wheat all over the world in the past few days has had a tendency to prompt farm? ers to hold back their grain and await a further advance. This practice often follows an advance in prices, but as there was a drop on Chicago Exchange yesterday, the local buyers expect to see a great influx of both wheat and oats. Farmers today were anxiously inquiring of buyers the latcil appointing Sir Richard Cartwright, est quotations. The price offered this the market either way. While the fine weather continues there will likely be little grain brought in. The pork market, too, is receiving Some pork dealers were interviewed and questioned today regarding pork, time during the season while others thought it would sell for $6 to $6 50 before the winter is over. Mr. Park said he had not heard of any scarcity of pork in the country. The price, he thought, would not go any higher than at present. Farmers were too busy now to kill hogs, as the weath-Mr. Laurier has written to Mr. Chas. er was very fine, and they were pay-
