Condon Advertiser

$3.00 per year.

EVENING EDITION.
Outside City, $3.00 per year.

From 10:00 p.m. to 9:00 a.m., and solidays, call 3670, Business Department; 3671, Editors; 3672, Reporters; 673 News Booms ADVERTISER JOB PRINTING CO. PHONE 247.

Toronto Representative — F. W. Thompson, 57 Mail Building.
U. S. Representatives—New York: Charles H. Eddy Company, Fifth Avenue Building. Chicago: Charles H. Eddy Company, People's Gas Building. Boston: Charles H. Eddy Company, Old South Building.

London, Ont., Thursday, Jan. 25.

making its yearly report, offers jade wince, our withers are unwrung.

Canada, Millions of Canadian dollars man wome ed from foreign aggression.

great objection to Canadian himself to us by his handsome and it all anyway." So down cellar she are sliding these days. tation has been slowness in de- gentlemanly behavior." transportation has been slowness in delivery, which is considered a serious drawback by the shipper. If speedy delivery can be insured, there is no reason why the greater portion of Canadian merchandise should not pass through Canadian ports. Canada has splendid canada has sple

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian shippers and Canadian ports. The submarine danger to vessels sailing out of American ports, and the indifference of the American Government in regard to the Entente.

A battle on skis sounds quite exciting the Government in regard to the American Government in regard to the American Government in regard to the American Government in regard to the Entente.

A battle on skis sounds quite exciting the Government in regard to the Entente.

A battle on skis sounds quite exciting the Government in regard to the Entente.

Switzerland is short of coal. They will have to burn some of the boats in the Swiss navy yet. Many might keep warm by sleeping in the igloos tired, swollen, calloused feet or corns. ports, where the ships would be under valuable as they will appear to the dethe protection of the British navy.

THAT UTOPIAN DREAM.

OL. CHUMSKY, the Russian miliary critic, is quoted in yesterday's dispatches as "protesting vigorefforts to secure this "Utopian dream" hot air. complete flasco. An armed orce and a strategically strong fron-

Yet when radical Britain, radical valuable suggestions. and it might be added, the that, Russian opinion to the he is not crazy now, he would be at there will be less armament the end. will not be for maintaining the race It is all very well for Raemaekers to whom he was attacked dis- potentate. today will not have a hand in again ernment, a vast number of other Cansetting the stage with the properties adians do. of conflict. And he will be chief stage director when the drama of peace is

N. B.-The Russian private soldier has had a taste of democracy also.

NO PUNISHMENT?

RESIDENT WILSON goes on with his comfortable armchair dreams. He ought to cross over like Henry Ford, his twin brother, and find out whether there really is a fight and eave a sting, a bitter memory." But what about just punishment? How hide and awake a conscience.

that all will be lovely again after a Uncle Sam was classed with these prosnot of that view, though he is one of

"On terms like these Germany-Austria are left with a future and a far horizon. They do not deserve it. That I fully admit. But I believe the punishment of Germany is yet to come. For one thing, though we may drop any policy of Govern-mental exclusion of Germany from mental exclusion of Germany from .
British markets, or of Germans from .
access as tourists to this and that part of the British Empire, our citizens, with the remembrance in their minds for two generations of Germany's crimes—in gross and in detail —will certainly decline to trade with that empire or associate with its

So speaks even the British pacifist. He is under no foolish illusions on this point, though he does not, like Wilson, boast of "seeking only to face reallties." He knows very well, living in England, that a draw peace will not bring any restoration of confidence petween Hun and Briton. We know very well that the viper sought our life. We know that the Hun cannot be trusted if left with power and poison in his fangs. President Wilson could THE ST. JOHN Board of Trade, in say with Shakespeare, "Let the galled suggestion which is worthy of care- There is no arguing from the effects ducation in the west in favor of the Never before were whole nations pitted tilization of Canadian ports for the ex- against each other en masse, year in ness of the country. Our slogan hence- dyed in perfidy and brutality as the forth should be 'Canadian Ports and German. It was an elaborate, fifty-Canadian Railways for Canadian Busi- year plot of spying, trickery and secret and we should not be content preparations against the peace and antil this idea permeates the whole of liberties of the world. Even the Gerping transcontinental lines of railway men's Council of the World against and in developing Canadian ports to militarism and in favor of armament handle traffic originating on the serious in reduction, the German and and in the great war that is now in delegates, the Hun women in brief, rereduction, the German and Austrian of blood and treasure in order fused to associate themselves with the that our national ideas may be con- majority, in order, as they said, "not and that our country may be to embarrass the policy of their govendous sacrifices demand of Against the French, whom our an Canadians that they should present a cestors fought for hundreds of years, united front to the world, not only with there was no such feeling of hatred national trade, but for the upbuilding of Canada as a part of the British Emread things like this: "I have no doubt ahead with her preparations with as Helen shyly, as much care as if the president were exluded minds of the Austrians.

It is a tribute to the efficacy of the Penny Bank that London boys have fully ously against the idea of limited arma- That should not bother the Ambitious He declares that all previous City with its inexhaustible supplies of How to raise money is the city countier are the colonel's ideas for peace cil's problem. Surely members have had enough personal experience to give overseas dominions, come to making him listen to all the speeches voice in peace terms, it may be of senators on Wilson's message? If macy that leads inevitably to set up the kaiser as a weather-vane they were seated on a divan before the tead of carrying a revolver just now, but soon there will be no blazing apple wood fire, "Prof. Talis-would much sooner have the room for vanity in the system of that e would much sooner have the room for vanity in the system of that t may be necessary to have a The result of the efforts of the Topolice officer around the ronto Star would go to prove that even but surely Britain's premier of if Ottawa doesn't want national gov-

> "Light snowfalls," says the weatherman. "Ten minutes more in bed," says the shoveler, who is weary of the far from light snowfalls with which the weather-man has so bountifully served

The gallant British sailors who man torpedoboat destroyers deserve our sincerest gratitude. They go out in the nese dead of night, into lonely seas, searching for treacherous enemy ships, with the probability of never returning. The risk they run is great, but their service is indispensable. In yesterday's editorial, "Where Peace can any punishment fail to leave a Will Hurt," it was pointed out that ex-'sting"? The Germans need a sting travagance, caused by the increased of extra strength to get through their prosperity of the average munitions worker, was the forerunner of the painful time when peace shall come and munitions work cease. Presumably the Englishmen in favor of letting In ship-loading there is a certain-line things go at a draw. In the London of safety, called the loadline, and all things go at a draw. In the London Daily News and Leader he wrote recently:

It seems to be your specialty, too. But, say, really, I must be going. Your mother was furious. Oh, there really was an awful row, and I heard them 'phoning for the police.''

Conclave essayed to launch out, consisting of hundreds, and paraded the recesses and jungles, whereupon, the desideratum being the discovery of the corpse. The search continued for seventher the police.'' "As long as I live I shall never waver from my opinion that Germany was entirely and only to blame for this war; I shall feel that if strict justice were dealt out by an tiate with Australia for the purpose of impartial, supreme power, the Hohenzollern dynasty and the German people would receive a crushing punishment."

It is alleged that the borst liberately putting the lives of British postor, and when I invite you to dinner community. It is alleged that the host to pay, he argues for excessively PEACE? YES, BUT WITH YOUR MASK OFF!

"If there is an historical fact established at the present date, it is the wilful aggression of Germany and Austria-Hungary to Insure their hagemony over Europe,"-Entente reply to President Wilson's note.-Glasgow Herald.

THE ADVERTISER'S DAILY SHORT STORY

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.) A LECTURE ON CHINA. By Louise Oliver.

kitchen to take the lemon pies out of pected, singing gayly as she worked. Finally when the cream was whipped. the salad arranged and the butter pats made she decided to get another basket

The Chinaman gave an audible sigh of relief and then a smile overspread nis own features. He removed the cap and pigtail and wiped off the eyebrows.

"I'll bet I do," he agreed, stepping out of his hiding hole and looking rue-"I caught this blooming nightgown on a nail as I siid through your suffragettes to be brutal. Some Hamilton reports a coal famine. cellar window, and I think the pro-fessor says it's worth $2,000. Do you

He pivoted slowly, but Helen shook we ain't mad. er head. "No, I don't see anything." But for goodness sake tell me why you "Worse than that. The entire Liter-

Mercy! You must be the professor don't usually come by the cellar route, the trouble. I'm an impostor, and they "You're too frank to be very much of a counterfeit," said Helen. "Won't you come upstairs and tell me all a out hus before the congress of clubs to the tune of $100. Well, about a month ag seemed a shame to have to cancel hree sons he's putting through colleg and an invalid wife; so every dollar counts. I'd heard his lecture so many mes I know it off by heart, so I've Wel? Isn't that all right? "It seems not. I forgot the thing to-ay right in the middle."

'And I started to improvise! "Which was fatal. I said something about Takahira and Kuropatkin. Said I knew them well in Pekin. Forgot they were Japanese instead of Chi-

"And then some woman got sus-

"Holy cats! She'il be home soon, then; I must be going."

"No, you're going to stay right here.
I've got your dinner just about ready."

"I've got your dinner just about ready."

"Sabbath day by the host, and a dummy while the other members of the house-hold were attending church. When

o recommend him besides twenty years

"I've got my own clothes on under tiplicity of theories dominated the com-

But, fearing that the cost of punishing Germany as she richly deserves ing Germany as she richly deserves may be too much for an earthly power Canadians.

| It is aneged that the lives of British postor, and when I invite you to dinner you're to say." | made confession on his death oed as to the disposal of his son. | want to come back some time." with a look of admiration at the flushed, ear-grey eyes. Helen was very, very pretty.

"Well—who are you?"

Wait a Minute!

have gone today with mother and the girls to hear the lecture. But I'll hear as the Seven Slippers, the way things lines have been extended and will be still further extended to meet the needs of a growing trade.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian shippers and Canadian ports. The submarine danger to vessels exilly a still to the Entente.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It's a wonder President Wilson isn't disamble tired of being sat on.

It's a wonder President Wilson isn't disamble to being sat on.

German press believes Entente inspired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian spired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian spired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

German press believes Entente inspired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian spired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

German press believes Entente inspired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian spired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

German press believes Entente inspired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian spired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

German press believes Entente inspired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian spired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

German press believes Entente inspired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente.

The war itself should forward the co-operation between Canadian spired Wilson's speech. That's an insult to the Entente insu

-when we get it. Yvette Guilbert advises the guy was a lucky bird when he did not marry Yvette. Hooray, Villa says he wants to be let alone nough to satisfy most any souv.

The high cost of living has reached

I'll cease being a body and just be shade; Flerce war is no worse than the H.

And as General Sherman remarked,

THE OLD UN. GLADSTONE, BY JOHN NOBLE-A

TRAGEDY. A tragedy was perpetrated in prime vai days, which set the sparsely inhabitants all agog. A pretentious los structure domiciled exclusively one Then you don't care if I'm not the the members of the household returned the members of the household returned from worshipping the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, in a tabernacle in the wilderness. The host was the sole custodian of the tabernacle. During "But I don't believe I have any spe- the interval the dummy disappeared mysteriously from this mundane sphere. The tragical event was provere doing something for a friend in mulgated assiduously sparsely scattered inhabitants.

oughs, colds and lung troubles. They are little tablets made up from Pine extracts and medicinal essences. When put into the mouth hese medicinal ingredients turn nto healing vapors, which are oreathed down direct to the lungs, broat and bronchial tubes. The eps treatment is direct. Swalowing cough mixtures into the tomach, to cure ailments and disorders in throat and lungs, is inlirect. Peps are revolutionizing he treatment of colds, as their price is within the reach of all 50c. box all druggists, or Peps Co., rened ostensibly on Tuesday evening vened ostensibly on Tuesday evening at the school structure, with the president, Mr. William McCauley, in the chair. The attendance overflowed into the alsies, whilst standing noom was at a premium. The enthuslasm engen dered by the debate-Resolved, that the women of Canada should have the franchise, was phenominal. The affirmative was contested strenuously by Miss Etta Fitchet, and Mr. E. Jenkins, while the negative combated the arguments logically. The referees empan elled comprised auspiciously Mrs Skene Smith, Mrs. John Brodle and Mr. O. Silcox. After due deliberation, the favor of the affirmative, which was greeted with applause.

The program was replete with musicales and dramatic lore. The personi. ed a step, her eyes widening with amazement as she gazed at the govfirst magnitude. Messrs, Gordon and Harry Nichol of Wilton Grove, veritable representatives of the Celtic race, supplemented with the bagpipes, were a feature of the function. Miss Balley Quartets from Belmont and Manieton, Clerk's Recovery As= tonishes London.

Can't beat "Tiz" for sore,

LONDON TO HALIFAX HALIFAX TO LONDON alling Falmouth to land passengers For particulars of sallings and rate apply to local agents or to The Rober Notice--London Headquarters for Columbia Grafonolas and Records Is

Gourlay, Winter & Leeming,

261 Dundas Street

Buy From Us and Have a Complete Stock to Choose From

Columbia February Records

New Columbia List an Instrumental Triumph

HE most brilliant names in the instrumental field distinguish this month's list of Columbia Records: the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, with Wagner's "Ride of the Valkyries;" Pablo Casals, with Schumann's "Abendlied;" Josef Hofmann, with Paderewski's "Minuet in G;" Kathleen Parlow, with the "Cavalleria Rusticana" Intermezzo; and Eddy Brown, with Massenet's "Elegie."

Equally distinguished is the vocal list, with Oscar Seagle singing Moore's "Meeting of the Waters;" Lucy Gates rendering "Come My Beloved;" David Bispham with his famous "Danny Deever;" and Vernon Stiles singing "At Dawning" and "Because"—examples of the quality and interest of the

New Records for February on sale January 20th

Among the sixteen popular recordings, Al Jolson is again the headliner, singing "A Broken Doll" from "London Taps," the big hit from abroad which is also recorded as a fox-trot in this month's list of eight dance-records.

A Few of the Song-Hits and Dances Listed:

HONOLULU, AMERICA LOVES YOU. (We've Got to Hand It to You.) A5914 Knickerbocker Quartette.

ON THE SAND WICH ISLES. Knickerbocker Quartette. 'TWAS ONLY AN IRISHMAN'S A 2151 DREAM. Empire Trio. YADDIE, KADDIE, KIDDIE, KADDIE, DANCE OF THE DOLLYS. (Ager.) A 5918 MURIEL WALTZ. Prince's Or-

MY LONELY LOLA LO. (Murphy,

Then there is a wonderful choral recording of the second-act finale of "La Traviata," the initial recordings of James Harrod, tenor, two monumental hymns, Charles Harrison in two songs of the heart, light orchestral selections and overtures, marimba and accordionbanjo novelties, and even two story-records for the children to make this interesting list complete. Whatever your tastes, you'll be sure to enjoy a visit to your dealer's today!

New Columbia Records on sale the 20th of every month.

RECORD

COLUMBIA RECORDS AND GRAFONOLAS ON SALE AT

HARMONY HALL 4 Doors North of Dundas.

The Wright Piano Co., Ltd.

Columbia Machines and Records. "Wright Pianos Are Right Pianos." Nordheimer's

2 Doors West of Majestic. 227 Dundas

GREAT INVALIDS.

[New York Sun.] the world's work had lids. One of the gree of music was deaf, so atest inventors. Steven atest inventors. Steve considered, had no b laubert was an epiler assumptive, Milton was of Col. Roosevelt in your of Coi. Rooseveit in your erned his parents. Nappus colds. A great his over physical infirm are a genius of the fire Traction Company London and Port

To St. Thomas and Port Stanley-7:30 a.m., *9:30, *11:30, EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1. *1:30 p.m., *3:30, *5:30, *7:30, To Port Stanley—6:20, 8:20, 10:20 a.m., *9:15 p.m.

To Port Stanley—6:20, 8:20, 10:20 p.m., So St. Thomas—*5:20, *6:20, 7:20, 8:20, ...

To Tempo, 4:30. To St. So. Thomas. *5:20, *6:20, 7:20, 8:20, Thomas, 6:15 p.m. and 11:15 p.m.

So. St. Thomas. *5:20, *6:20, 7:20, 8:20, 9:20, 10:20, 11:20 a.m., 12:20, 1:20, 2:20, 3:20, 4:20, 5:20, 6:30, 7:20, 8:20, 9:20, 10:20, *11:20 p.m.

Bunday cars marked with a star (*)