LINES ON PEACE.

When I walk out by a friendly lane,
By a path I know that is fringed with green,
It is something to dream of a guarding peace
That hovers over the quiet scene.

But when, by a turn in the road beyond,
A rattlesnake lifts its poisoned head,
The only peace I can dream of then
Is a rattlesnake that's dead.

HERZOG AND THE GIANTS.

It can be figured almost a certainty that Charley Herzog will be in the world series, and that he will be in shape to give his best, provided he takes a sufficient rest.

When Herzog left the club his team had the pennant won by forty-seven kilometers, which is as far as from June to October. There wasn't even the grey ghost of a chance for another club.

The Giants' captain was in poor shape and had been playing for weeks on his nerve. His health was badly run down, and the big mystery is just why the Giants' management didn't insist upon his taking a rest to get into proper shape for the championship. New York's world series record has been spotted enough to call for every precaution. The Big Town has won one of four starts, which is nothing to rave about. With Herzog in shape the Giants would be 20 per cent better off for the main melee next month. It would have been worse than foolish for him to continue playing or traveling in the shape he was.

Herzog has always given his best to every club he has worked with. He has always been one of the hardest hustlers on the field.

It would have been insane for him to have continued playing in such poor physical shape, where his condition might have led to a serious illness.

THE EMINENT ZIM.

An earnest fanatic writes in to know whether Zim shouldn't be classed as the greatest third baseman baseball has produced.

Not with Jimmy Collins and Bill Bradley to be figured in the returns.

Heinie's infield play this season has been on a par with the best. He has been playing even as well as Jimmy Collins. But it must be remembered that Collins linked a number of great years together and that the old Boston star could always be found around 330 or 340.

There is still matter for debate this season as to whether or not Zim has outclassed Heinie Groh. The two Heinies have undoubtedly led the parade.

Zim has produced a slight margin over Groh around the bat, but the argument still led his Giant rival at bat and in runs scored, which leaves the argument still undecided.

WHY NOT?

Sir: The other day I played a masher shot that stuck on the opposite bank of a pond. I was unable to get assistance, so I got in a boat, rowed up to the ball and, standing in the boat, played safely out. I was told this was illegal. Why is it?

The boat might be ruled as an outside object, although it should be an adjunct of a water hole. But what would prevent Annette Kellerman diving to the bottom of a pond and whipping a nubbly shot to the green? Not a thing but ten or twelve feet of water.

PROBABLY THE CIRCUS PAYROLL.

There is war to the right of us.
War to the left of us.

War all around with its blighings;
But out of the swirl of things,
Out in the whirl of things,
Say, who is Jess Willard fighting?

—L. L. H.

We thought we were missing something lately. After pondering for two or three days we suddenly discovered the deficit. It was this—the old September headlines—"Yale Fears Holy Cross"—"Stagg Fears Purdue."

BY WAY OF REMINDER.

Several enthusiastic college correspondents have been boasting of the promised strength of their college this fall. More than one or two have taken great pride in the announcement that many stars will be back. This condition may be proper enough, but it is nothing to flaunt in the faces of those teams which have sent every regular to the firing line.

Football should be played this year. But there will be no championships. And it is just as well to understand the fact in advance that there will be no credit belonging to any winning eleven—not when the winners are opposed to rivals who have most of their 1916 stars at the front.

LEAFS WIN EASILY FROM ST. THOMAS

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 21.—Larry

Lajoie and his Toronto champions won from the St. Thomas club handsly today in the exhibition game staged at Pinarof Park. The Leafs took kindly to Billings' pitching and walloped him in a very healthy manner, which, coupled with a base on balls and two errors, netted the visitors six runs in the opening inning. A canned version of the sad affair follows:
