"The reason the Frenchwoman is so well dressed as a rule is that she is immensely critical, and makes very good use of the triple mirror, in which she can see at once the back and side views of her figure. She never remains feolishly gratified with her appearance after a cursory glance at the front view, but remembers that all the world does not bow before her; to many it is her back that must mainly be visible."

Women's Rights.

Women's rights have taken a practical turn in Hamilton, where a number of girls have been delayed in going to their work thru the obstruction of the street cars by the T. H. & B. Rail-way. They wrote to Chairman Leitch of the Ontario railway board, who, however has no jurisdiction over a Domin-ion railway, but he has referred the matter to the Dominion board.

MONTREAL, Dec. 17.—G. S. Cantlic, who is in charge of the distribution of the freight service of the Canadian Pacific, stated to-day that the road was in an excellent position for cars now, and was able to meet all demands without any trouble. While the recent depression seemed to have hit a good many American roads pretty hard, to such an extent that they had many idle cars, no such con-ditions prevailed in Canada, altho the C.P.R. could probably handle more business than was offering just now. One factor that had worked in the year, owing to the short period be-tween harvest and the close of lake navigation. This had furnished a great deal of work, owing to the great lergth of the haul, but under present conditions it was not found necessary to send more empties west than were coming loaded from Fort William. In
