HEROIC CONDUCT RECEIVES REWARD

Military Decorations Are Bestowed on Many Toronto Officers.

A POPULAR OFFICER

Late Capt. Grant, the Well-Beloved, Receives Military Cross.

Military decorations for a dozen officers with Toronto units overseas are contained in the New Year's list of honors.

Lt.-Col. H. A. Genet, Brantford, who left Toronto as commander of the 58th Battalion, now on the western battle front, has received the distinguished service order. The credit for the 58th going to the front as a unit is given to Col. Genet for his efficiency as a leader. Col. Genet belongs to the 38th Dufferin.

Col. John J. Creelman, honored with the D.S.O., was born and brought up in this city, but had lived in Montreal since 1885. When in Toronto he was a member of the G.-G.B.G.

Brig.-General Casimir C. Van Straubense, of the Royal Artillery, becomes a companion of St. Michael and St. George. In 1909 he married Mrs. Ethel Purcell (nee Van Koughnet) McCulloch, of Toronto.

Major Gordon F. Morrison, 40 Bedford road, who was a broker in Toronto prior to the war, has received the D.S.O. He went overseas with the 19th Battalion.

Major Chas. A. Corrigan, son of T. S. Corrigan, 234 Cottingham street, has been awarded the D.S.O. He was formerly a well-known dentist in Toronto. His wife is serving as a nurse in Etaples hospital, France.

Acting Major Wm. Douglas Adams, now a brigade major, has been awarded the military cross. His people live at 23 Cliff road. Two brothers are with the C.E.F.

Miss A. J. Hazley, of Brantford, has received the royal cross, first class. She went overseas with the 4th Toronto University Base Hospital.

Splendid Heroism.
Pte. Henry E. Scott, son of Mrs. Anna Scott, 33 Grace street, has been awarded the D.C.M. for carrying wounded men out of No Man's Land for two days at a stretch, while under incessant fire. Dr. Frank Scott, of Toronto, is a brother.

Capt. J. R. Cartwright, who has gained the Military Cross, was a law student with the firm of Smith, Rac & Green, prior to enlisting, and is a son of the late J. S. Cartwright, former master in chambers.

Lieut. C. P. Coatsworth, 1 May square, awarded the Military Cross, is a son of His Honor Judge Emmerson Coatsworth. At the time of his enlistment he was a student at the school of practical science. A letter from the front states his soldier comrades "think the world of him."

Lieut. H. C. Good, awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal for gallantry, is a son of Thomas Good, 162 Cowan avenue. He won his commission on the field of battle.

Lt.-Col. Wm. Bernard Evans, Jr., Montreal, son of W. B. Evans, 21 Park road, Toronto, has just received promotion from senior major and given command of the 52nd Port Arthur Battalion, now overseas, as a reward for his splendid record at the firing line.

Receives Promotion.
Lieut. V. W. Fairweather, No. 4 station, has just received promotion from the ranks. He is now an officer of the 19th Battalion.

Sub-Flight Lieut. George R. S. Fleming, Toronto, has been raised to rank of flight lieutenant in the Royal Naval Air Service, a rank corresponding to that of captain in the army.

Capt. C. W. Lea, formerly of the 12th York Rangers, a rank corresponding to that of captain in the army, has received notice of his son, Capt. Clarence Lea, receiving the Military Cross. He is 25 years of age and a native of Toronto.

Capt. Oswald W. Grant, killed last June at Ypres, and whose name appears among those just awarded the Military Cross, was exceedingly well thought of by his soldier comrades. In writing a letter for Christmas to the late officer's parents his comrades state: "We can never get so good an officer as Capt. Grant," and "the captain was the best officer we ever fought under." During his last leave in London he was summoned before the general of his division and told he had been promoted and decorated. The captain replied: "There are men who have fought by me, sir, and died; men who have done braver things than I have, and I do not feel like accepting a decoration that has been earned by so many who have not received it."

One month later he met his death. He was a son of Dr. A. Grant, 25 Cluny avenue, a graduate of Toronto University, Upper Canada College, and had put in one year at Osgoode Hall. He enlisted as a private in the Q.O.R.

CONTRIBUTED TO FUND.
For the splendid work of the Toronto Fire Department in fighting fires during last year in Todmorden, York township, the ratepayers of Todmorden yesterday sent to Fire Chief Smith a cheque for $50, to be applied to the Firemen's Benefit Fund.

Mayor Church declares he is not, and never has been, after any jobs. During the last month, he added, three legal firms had been after his services, but he refused. "I hope this," he said, "will have the effect of answering silly rumors."

RUSSIANS HOLD ENEMY ATTACK

fire, and the enemy hastily retreated to his trenches.

The Germans won a success north of the Kazino River, where they attacked the enemy at a point about five miles east of the Hungarian frontier. The Germans were beaten in an attack east of Sopchan, on the upper reaches of the River Suchitza, and on their retreat they were pursued by cavalry. They withdrew in a westerly direction, but they secured reinforcements and pressed back the Rumanians to their former position.

On the Moldavian frontier the enemy today assumed the offensive on the sector extending from the Village of Kotumba to the valley of the Suhobul River and south of that point. Everywhere the enemy attacked he was repulsed. The Russians also recaptured a portion of their trenches lost on one of the heights yesterday.

The Germans claimed today that they had taken Barscel, Topatz, and Pintecesti and Mera. The two last are situated on the Milcovul, a tributary of the Siret river. These villages are situated west and south of Fokshani.

The Russian and German communiques published today in reference to the fighting in Rumania are interpreted here as showing that the four and a half miles north of the Siret line, a tributary of the Siret river, the villages of Kioveni and Makalinski, south-east of the Village of Gulanika, were also captured. The German detachments which were occupying these villages were thrust back southward.

In the Dobruja, the enemy thrust the day made a number of attacks in the region of Matchin. He was repulsed and hastily retired.

A Berlin dispatch says: The Towns of Matchin and Jilia, in northern Dobruja, must have important consequences, is impending. The Frank attack on the Moldavian frontier continues obstinately, but there is nothing to elude the continuing reports as to the results contained in the respective communiques.

The Russian and German forces still hold Braila, maintaining their grip on the bridgehead which defends their last foot-hold in Rumania. The corresponding bridgehead at Matchin, in Dobruja, has, however, been further reduced by successful German attacks.

Today's Russian official report, repeated by a native of our regiment, the Wireless Press, says:

"On the Moldavian frontier the enemy today assumed the offensive on the sector extending from the Village of Kotumba to the valley of the River Suchitza, and on their retreat they were pursued by cavalry. They withdrew in a westerly direction, but they secured reinforcements and pressed back the Rumanians to their former position."

have been captured, it is announced officially.

Matchin is across the Danube from Braila. The German War Office report: "Rumanian front: Front of Archduke Joseph—Strong hostile attacks against the Rumanian front. The Rumanians have been pushed back further toward Vacaren and Jilia, and into Matchin."

The official statement reports the situation on the Macedonian front unchanged. On the Russian front, south of Lake Driviaty, Russian raiding detachments were driven away. East of Zlochoff the Russian front is unchanged.

Under cover of a drizzle bombardment with shells containing asphyxiating gas the enemy in close formation attacked along the railway southwest of Fokshani, a portion of one of our regiments. Being met with our well-directed fire, the enemy hastily retired to his trenches and did not attempt a further attack.

Russ Take Three Villages.
"One of our rifle regiments took by assault the Village of Gulanika, south-west of the River Rinnik, and captured six officers, two sergeants, 205 men, five machine guns, and a number of other trophies. The German detachments which were occupying these villages were thrust back southward."

In the Dobruja, the enemy thrust the day made a number of attacks in the region of Matchin. He was repulsed and hastily retired.
