Toward Old Coalition

Parties Unsuccessful.

Berlin, June 18.—Efforts by Konstantin Fehrenbach to form a cabinet from the three old coalition parties have thus far been unsuccessful. The party will not be able to give the cabinet a complete vote of confidence, but will not vote against the government, although it reserves its liberty of action in the event the government adopts an anti-labor policy.

Dr. Fehrenbach is negotiating now with the Bourgeois parties.

Mystery Surrounding Rental

of Quarters in London

is Solved.

London, June 18.—The mystery surrounding rental by Gregory Krassin, the Bolshevik minister of trade and commerce, of quarters in the modish west end shopping district was cleared up today when it was learned the "All-Russian Co-Operative Society, Ltd.," had been officially registered with a capital of £15,000.

Organizers of the new company are said to be M. Krassin, M. Rozovsky and M. Nogin, but the names of Krassin and Nogin do not appear in the list of registered directors, those named being M. Rozovsky, B. Crysin and Madame V. Polovosev.

Former executives of the London headquarters of the co-operative organization characterized the directors of the new company as "traitors to the co-operative movement, saying they have manoeuvred into places of authority in the co-operative organization for the purpose of engineering an eventual soviet control of this agency."

They maintain the new company constitutes a menace to the old organizations which are engaging in remunerative trade.

On explanation offered for the small capital of the company just organized is fear of some confiscatory action on the part of France.

RUSSIAN SOVIET RECALLS

WASHINGTON AMBASSADOR

Washington, June 18.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, who for more than 15 months has been in the United States as the self-styled Russian soviet ambassador, has been recalled by the soviet authorities. It was learned tonight in official circles.

Martens' confidential secretary, Sanford Nuorteva, left the United States several weeks ago by way of Canada and now is believed to be attending the conference being held in England by Gregory Krassin, Bolshevik minister of commerce, it was said tonight by United States department of justice officials.

IN ELWELL CASE

New York, June 18.—Solution of the mystery surrounding the murder of Joseph B. Elwell, turkman and international whist expert, shot in his home here June 11, is "as far off" as a week ago, District Attorney Swann announced tonight.

The investigation centred today in the examination of Mrs. Marie Larsen, housekeeper for Elwell, and Edward Held, his chauffeur. Neither was held, although in the day Assistant District Attorney Joyce announced that both would be formally detained as material witnesses.

Important developments which had been expected during the day, he said, "failed to materialize."

"SIT AND SKETCH."

Upon the water, in the boat.

I sit and sketch as down I float;

The stream is wide, the view is fair,

I sketch it looking backward there.

The stream is strong, and as I sit

And view the picture that we quit,

It flows and flows, and bears the boat

And I sit sketching as we float.

Each pointed height, each wavy line,

To new and other forms combine;

Proportions vary, colors fade,

And all the landscape is remade.

Depicted neither far nor near,

And larger here and smaller there,

And varying down from old to new,

Even I can hardly think it true.

Yet still I look, and still I sit,

Adjusting, shaping, altering it;

And still the current bears the boat

—Arthur Hugh Clough.

LEASIDE

LOST USEFUL BUILDING.

An ideal school building in a central location was lost to the residents of Leaside when the substantial frame building erected as a hospital for the R.A.F. in Macrae drive was scrapped after the signing of the lease, according to the statement of a member of Leaside town council to The World yesterday. "I do not know what the major was thinking about to allow the building to be torn down," remarked the councillor.

The question of school accommodation will be discussed at the next meeting of council.

HINTS ON WALL PAPER.

The wall paper is a more important item, in a room than most people realize, for by the choice of the paper the room may be made or marred.

Big patterns must never be hung in small rooms; a dull or eastern atmosphere will be improved by pale pink or yellow tones, while delicate shades of grey, mauve, fawn and purple will look well in a sunny room.

Your furniture, carpets and hangings must also be considered, for harmony is everything.

Instead of definitely choosing your paper from a small and totally inadequate square in a book have a roll of one or two you specially favor sent to the house and hang a couple of lengths by a nail on the wall of the room so that you may get a really good idea as to how it will look.
