to the transfer

Baronclage of Scotland and Nova Scotia.—A general meeting of the order took place in the city of Glasgow on Thursday last, the Hon. Sir John Campbell, Bart, in the chair, for the purpose—first, of receiving a report from Sir Richard Breun, of the steps taken since the year 1855, for the revival of the rights of the erder, in the Province of Nova Scotia, as anciently bounded (which comprehends New-Brunswick, Prince Edward's Island, Cape Breton, Gaspe, &c.), and of the circumstances which have occurred to suspend these proceedings since October, 1812; second, to sanction a renewal of the negociations with Lord Stanley, Colonial Minister, and with Sir W m. Colebrooke, Lieutemant Governor of New-Brunswick, for grants of land to the baronets whose creations are subject to 1637, and for new grants in five of those originally given for such concurring baronets as inherit titles of a prior date spand third, to join in a specific of a prior date spand third, to join in a specific make an unefficient of the proposed of the process of the indicator their form.

which met with a speedy sale. Amongst other articles brought over we may mention numerous Yankee clocks, which, however, owing to the quantity introduced, have become a drug in the market.

A. Man and Horse Killed by Bees.—On Wednesday week a horse belonging to a farmer in Cambridgeshire, having strayed from his pasture into a garden adjeining, steked down a hive of bees, which instantly attacked him with great fierceness. A shepherd, who happened to be in a house adjoining, went to the rescue of the torturer animal, when he, too, was attacked, and stung in every exposed part of his body, notwithstanding every appliance, such as wet cloths, &c. was employed to drive away his assailants. The poor fellow died whilst being conveyed home, and with in ten minutes of the attack, and has left several children to lament his untimely end. The horse died the next evening.

The Semaphore de Marseilles of the Sth instant announces the arrival on the preceding day of the steamer Redschild, having on board the two Egyptian Princes, Hussein Bey, son of Mchemet Aliand Almet Bey his grandson. The princes are accompanied by 39 young men belonging to the first families in Egypt, who have been sent to France at the expense of the Viceroy, for the purpose of receiving an European Education. The erfect of these youths had been contided to Stephen Effendi. The princes landed, in the course of the day at the Euzeretto, where apartments had been prepared for them.

The state of the crops in France, according to the latest advices, is not so good as was expected. The Burns Pestival took place at Ayr, on the banks of the Doon, on Thesday last. It was at tended by men from all parts of Scotland, and by not a few from England, including many literary characters of eminence and the relatives of the poet. There was a procession in the morning, and a dinfor the occasion.

The Sting of Saxony embarked on board her Majecty's deman of Saxoy embarked on board her Majecty's deman for the occasion.

The King of Saxony embarked on board her Majecty'

Among the recent deaths are, Viscount Powerscourt, Lord Herlingfield, Sir James Grambier, Sir John Maxwell, bart., Rear Admiral Galway, Laddy Ann Elizabeth Seott, clotest sister of the Dake of Powerlemen, and the eclebrated Dr. Dalton of Marthesper.

The Very Rev. Richard Curor, P. P., Kilmore, a the Elist ultimo, at the advanced age of 102. The have to announce the demise of the Grand Duchess Alexandra, fourth daugitter of the Empercy of Russia, and consort of his Royal Highness Prince Frederick of Hesse, cledest son of the Landgrave William of Hesse.

The Very personis died of injuries sustained at the execution at Nottingham, and twenty-one were dangerously wounded.

On Monday evening, at Wercester, on the Severn, twelve men employed at the works for improving navigation were drowned by the uspetting of a boat in which they were crossing the rice, three only were saved, and these were with difficulty restored to consciousness. The boat was overladen, and they lad given way to mirth and froite.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Eliward Hooper Senhouse, Esq. Commander in the Royal Navy, to be Provest Marchal for the island of Burbadoes; Particle Bronan, Esq. to be Superintendant of Police for the island of Ceylon.

It is rumoured that a large section of Calvinistic Methodists, one thousand at least, from Caranvon the West of the William of Ceylon.

The London and Blackwall Railway 3.24 miles long, in the week calong August 31, carried 125,249 passengers. The receipts for which were 21 (169 15-o. activities and them wives, and served when here is a final time wives, and served when here is a final time wives, and served when here is a final time wives, and served when here is a final time wive, and served when here is a final time wive, and served when here is a final time wive, and served when here is a final time wive, and served when here is a final time wive, and served when here is a final time with a special time of the burners of their manned, when some free thanks of the burners of their manned, wh

Trade is brisk both in the manufacturing towns and seep-ports, and every thing wears a busy aspect. Sir John Guest, Birt., M.P., has lately received an order from Russia, for 50,000 tons of iron, for the purpose of being employed in the construction of railways.

The receipt of customs at Leith on Friday amounted to £13655, of which the large sum of £11,682 was received on wheat, and the remainder on general produce.

Among the recent deaths are, Viscount Powerscourt, Lord Herlingfield, Sir James Grambier, Sir John Maxwell, bart., Rear Admiral Galway, Lady Ann Elizabeth Scott, eldest sister of the Duke of Facelench, and the celebrated Dr. Dalton of Man.