TNIE Subscriber having just returned from the United States, and having had his attention called to an advertisement headed "Frand Detected," and signed "John Ross," hereby states that the imputations there in thrown upon him are ntterly devoid of truth, and without foundation—on the contrary, he was not aware before this time of the existence of either Mr. Ross or his "Patent Artificial Slate Fire Proof Paint." He knew that Mr. J. W. M. Irish sold an article so called, but he was alike ignorant of its value and of its being the production of Mr. Ross.—As lins already been stated by Mr. Frith, the Subscriber has sold Pre-Proof Paint as such imported by finitself from Hallowell, in the United States, and he now begs to give notice that he has always a supply of this article on hand, and will continue to sell it as he has hitherto done, so long as Painters and others shall continue to give him their custom.
