DIG OFFERING AT IMPERIAL MONDAY

With "The Law of Compensation," Schenck-Pictures complete their first six months of success. This will be the second contribution by Norma Talmadge to the striking array of features which have emanated from this organization. Her first production after the formation of her own company by Joseph H. Schenck, "Panthea," established her in stardom. In "The Law of Compensation" she has a role which brings her even closer to the hearts of her audiences, because it deals with a young woman in modern American life. This photodrama will form a typical addition to the Schenck list. The important contribution in the first six months of its organization is best shown by a simple record of the offerings it has given to the public. "The Common Law," by Robert W. Chambers, starring Clara Kimball Young. "War Brides," produced by Herbert Brenon, starring Nadina. "Panthea," by Monckton Hoffe, starring Miss Talmadge. "The Argyle Case," by Harvey J. O'Higgins, starring Robert Warwick. "The Price She Paid," by David Graham Phillips, starring Miss Young. "The Eternal Sin," produced by Herbert Brenon, starring Florence Reed. "The Law of Compensation," by William Mizner, starring Miss Talmadge. In addition, there are in preparation, and nearly ready for release, "The Silent Master," by E. Phillips Oppenheim, starring Mr. Warwick; and "Poppy," Miss Talmadge's next production.

VICTORIA CROSS FOR A YOUNG HERO OF GREAT NAVAL FIGHT

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

London, July 8.—For the second time during the war, the Victoria Cross has been awarded without any detailed account of the reason being published. The first instance was that of Commander Gordon Campbell, of the navy; the second instance is Lieutenant-Commander W. E. Sanders, of the Royal Naval Reserve. The official notice of the honor to Sanders says merely: "In recognition of conspicuous gallantry, consummate coolness and skill in command of one of His Majesty's ships in action."

Commander Campbell was actually decorated by the king before the award of the Victoria Cross was published in the Official Gazette, and he also received the Distinguished Service Order under similar circumstances earlier, and was given special promotion over heads of about 700 officers. Current records ascribed his remarkable preferences to work against submarines.

The advancement of Sanders has been even more remarkable. He was commissioned in the naval reserve as a sub-lieutenant a year ago. The rule is that an officer shall serve eight years as lieutenant before getting further advancement, but he has risen by special dispensation from sub-lieutenant to lieutenant-commander in less than a year. Sanders is a native of New Zealand, and is thirty years old. He was an officer of sailing ships from the age of nineteen, and came to England in a naval base the day after the Victoria Cross for, but it is of such a peculiar nature that nothing could possibly be published. You may properly say, however, that it was one of the most brilliant minor engagements of the war.

CLOSELY GUARDING AGAINST SMALLPOX

Precautions in New Brunswick Because of Cases in Maine

Fredricton, N. B., July 21.—No further developments in the smallpox situation at the St. Croix border have been reported. Dr. E. H. McGrath, secretary of the provincial board of health, this morning said that the authorities are waiting for a sufficient length of time after the "last contact" of Canadian suspects with persons in the State of Maine. A woman at McAdam, who was suspected of having the disease, proved to have only a bilious attack. Two soldiers from Valcartier came home on leave were exposed to the disease and are being held pending signs of developing smallpox. It is thought that they have it. Compulsory vaccination has been adopted at McAdam.

Dr. McGrath says that the disease in Maine is of a nasty type, although no deaths have occurred. It first was observed in a sufficient length of time after the "last contact" of Canadian suspects with persons in the State of Maine. A woman at McAdam, who was suspected of having the disease, proved to have only a bilious attack. Two soldiers from Valcartier came home on leave were exposed to the disease and are being held pending signs of developing smallpox. It is thought that they have it. TO GET ALL POSSIBLE OUT OF FRENCH WATER POWER

Paris, July 21.—The government is about to introduce a bill to create a new office of under-secretary of state charged with the task of developing and extending the use of France's resources in water-power. A great store of motive force is imprisoned in French rivers and streams and never has been adequately exploited, mainly owing to complicated regulations concerning its application by industry.

That Troublesome If

A certain English foreman in one of the Kennington textile factories is in the habit of having an apprentice heat his luncheon for him. The other day he called a new apprentice. "Go downstairs and get up my lunch for me," ordered the foreman. The boy—a typical young American, with no knowledge of cookery—obeyed without alacrity. He was hungry. Ten minutes later the foreman came down. He also was hungry. "Where's my lunch?" he demanded. "You told me to eat it up—and I ate it," he stated. "I didn't tell you to eat it up!" roared the irate foreman. "I told you to eat it up!" "Well, I didn't eat it up," maintained the youngster, stoutly. "I ate it cold."

Many Children Die From Summer Complaint

When They Could Be Saved by Using DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

There is not a summer passes without thousands of people, especially infants, being attacked by Summer Complaint. The prostration, often verging on collapse, which sometimes accompanies this disease makes it one of the most serious and dangerous we have to contend with during the hot months. A remedy which will quickly offset the vomiting, purging and the profuse diarrhoea is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Mrs. Thomas M. Theriault, Grand Anse, N. B., writes: "My three children were very sick with Summer Complaint during the hot days last summer. I thought one day that they would die, and I didn't know what to do to cure them. I happened to have one of your almanacs in the house, and found by reading about Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry that it was a good remedy. I at once got two bottles, and they perfectly cured them. I recommend everybody to use this wonderful remedy." "When you ask for 'Dr. Fowler's,' see that you get it. It has been on the market for the past seventy-two years. You don't experiment when you buy it. Price 85c. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Better Food At Smaller Cost

At an open meeting of the canning club organization held under the auspices of the Y. W. P. A. in the High school last evening, a most interesting address was given by Miss Netta Nixon, of Macdonald College, Guelph, the representative of Hon. W. J. Hanna, the food controller, in the interests of food conservation. About 200 ladies were present and the meeting was presided over by Mayor Hayes, who introduced the speaker of the evening.

Miss Nixon gave an eloquent address on the various ways in which by careful buying and selection the average housewife can cut down the cost of living and, moreover, not use up so much of the class of foodstuff which is needed by the boys in the trenches. She mentioned the relative number of heat calories produced by the various kinds of food in common use, and which give the most heat and energy for the amount of money expended. The list is headed by bulk oatmeal, which has the most food value in consideration of its cost of any ordinary foodstuff. Next come pastry and bread, which probably the commonest of foods, and it is worthy of note that she classified cornmeal, cream of wheat and the various other cereals as having more heat and energy producing value for their cost than the meat, eggs and milk so generally considered as being very nutritious and essential.

Following Miss Netta Nixon, F. Peacock, the general director of manual training and domestic science, spoke. He said that they were indebted to the domestic science teachers for Miss Nixon's visit, since at the conference at Sackville last week they had applied to Mr. Hanna to send a domestic science expert to assist them and as a result Miss Nixon was deputed to visit the organization in New Brunswick. He said that the purpose of the canning club was to enable the girls to do their bit as well as the boys. They could not go overseas to fight or assist in the work on the farms, but they could be of inestimable value in preventing waste of all kinds.

Petrograd, July 20.—Despatches say that a most intense artillery battle is being waged in the vicinity of the front. Several hundred German heavy guns are said to be engaged. The Germans sought to advance but were driven back by the Russian fire, a crack Siberian corps bearing the brunt of the fighting. It is said the Russian guns are obtaining the mastery.

SINN FEIN PAPER SEIZED

British Suppress E. T. Keane's Weekly Newspaper.

Dublin, July 21.—The newspaper Kilkeny People, has been seized and suppressed by the police and military authorities. This paper is an important local weekly conducted by Edward T. Keane, an active politician, since the days of Parnell and now chairman of the local Sinn Feiners.

The paper has had frequent difficulties with the censorship, but it is felt here by good judges that its seizure on the eve of the parliamentary election to replace Patrick O'Brien, Nationalist, who died on July 19, will assist the Sinn Feiners and prejudice any constitutional candidate.

The Sinn Feiners held a meeting under the chairmanship of Mr. Keane and selected as their candidate for the Kilkeny seat W. T. Cosgrave, who was recently released from prison. Cosgrave was sentenced to death but this was commuted to life imprisonment, and he was finally released under the order of the government.

There Are Only Four Eye Defects

They are Far-Sight, Near-Sight, Astigmatism and Strabismus Eyes. The last is a strictly muscular trouble. There are degrees of each defect, and each is a danger to sight though the defect may exist for years before one is aware of it. In that case often the trouble apparently comes suddenly and is always harder to remedy.

Dr. E. L. Fuller

Dr. E. L. Fuller of Amherst is dead. He was born in Northampton, Mass., but his father was a native of Horton, Kings county, N.S., and was a brother of the late Mrs. Donkin, mother of Amherst's town clerk. About thirty-five years ago Dr. Fuller, after a very successful college course, moved to Amherst and opened an office. He was associated with the A. F. and A. M., the Independent Order of Foresters and other societies and was a member of the old Cricket Club that was in existence in the eighties. Some weeks ago he went to Ottawa and Ogdenburg to visit his son Edward and to secure expert opinion with regard to his case. He returned home feeling somewhat better and resumed his practice for a short time. He was taken seriously ill at Tidnish on last Sunday and was brought home at the first of the week. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Helen, who resides at home; also three sons, Edward, in San Francisco; Serget, Harry Fuller, of Nova Scotia; Highlanders at the front, and Victor of the Canada Car Company.
