

The Evening Times Star

VOL. X. No. 124

ST. JOHN N. B., TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1915

TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

Canadians In Front Trenches; Germans Only Eighty-Five Yards Away

For Seven Days Dominion Sons Have Been Fighting; Losses Small

Chief Troubles Frostbites -- Some Trenches Knee Deep With Water--Prussian Guards Charge but Whole Company is Mowed Down

Toronto, March 2—The World has the following cable from its correspondent in Northern France: For seven days the Canadians have been fighting against the Prussian guards and the Saxons in the first-line trenches. They have shown themselves splendid soldiers, and the losses, contrary to reports, have been surprisingly small.

BELIEVED ALL NOW IN FIGHT.

Ottawa, March 2.—The list of casualties among the Canadian contingent, announced during the night, bore grim testimony to the participation of our troops in the firing line and by now the whole division is thought to be engaged.

UPHOLDING TRADITIONS

Toronto, Ont., March 2.—The Mail and Empire prints the following special cable: London, March 1.—In the fire-swept battle zone of Flanders, Canada's sons are upholding the highest traditions of British arms. For days they have been under fire, most of them in reserve trenches, where they are constantly shelled without opportunity of replying. Everywhere they have been complimented on their coolness.

Russians Carrying Fight to the Enemy

On Offensive Now in Bukowina and Southeastern Galicia—Artillery in Carpathians Mows Down Massed German Attackers

Petrograd, March 2.—Victorious in their operations against the Germans in northern Poland, the Russians have now resumed the offensive in Bukowina and southeastern Galicia, on the extreme left wing of the 700 mile battlefield.

WEATHER BULLETIN. Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

Martime—Strong westerly to northerly winds, local snow flurries but mostly fair, becoming colder tonight; Wednesday fair and much colder.

MARGARET ANGLIN IN GREEK PLAYS

New York, March 2.—Miss Margaret Anglin yesterday announced her season of Greek productions in the Greek theatre of the University of California, at Berkeley. These productions, arranged by Prof. Wm. Dallas Ames, will be made in July and August, and will be the only performances of the kind officially a part of the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

HOPE FOR EARLY RECOVERY.

Inquiries at the General Public Hospital today elicited the fact that Mrs. John T. Casey of St. John West, who has been a patient there for the last week, was operated upon yesterday and that she had a restful night and is today doing nicely with prospects of favorable recovery. Her many friends in the city generally will be glad to hear this news.

MAJOR PERLEY TO COMMAND 62ND

Transfer Today—Talk of Calling Them Out For Active Service—Inspection Friday Instead of Thursday

Arrangements are being made today for the transfer of the command of the 62nd Regiment from Lieutenant-Colonel J. L. McAvity to Major Perley on account of the former's impending departure for the front. Lieutenant-Colonel W. E. Thompson of Halifax is here to supervise the transfer.

WAR NOTES

Casualties among the Canadians of the first contingent, announced last night, contain the names of two killed in battle and seven wounded. There are no maritime men in the list.

TO PENITENTIARY

John Travis, a young man who was arrested some time ago on a charge of breaking and entering and was allowed to go on a suspended sentence providing he would leave the city, was rearrested here last night and this morning taken before Judge Forbes, who sentenced him to the penitentiary for two years.

WATER FOR HOSPITAL

The water and sewerage department has completed the laying of mains to connect with the new county hospital for tubercular patients in East St. John. All that is now needed is some connections inside the building and the water can then be turned on as soon as wanted.

THE ALLIES' NEW GRIP ON GERMANY

United States to Send Note To Britain and France

HOPE FOR PEACE WITH RUSSIA

Germans See Nation's Position Hopeless Unless This is Done By May

Washington, March 2.—The United States will send a note to Great Britain and France in answer to the one received yesterday, inquiring what means will be taken in carrying out the policy of holding up supplies being carried to and from Germany. President Wilson's call today that the British-French note outlined in very general terms a policy, but did not define the means of carrying it into effect.

SOME NEW YORK PAPERS CRITICIZE

New York, March 2.—The Times says editorially: "The allies, of blockade of Germany would be very great. The full force of that argument would be appreciated and the counter-argument that it would be cruel to deprive the German people of the means of subsistence, lacks conviction."

GOOD SHOOTING AT THE INDOOR RANGE CONTINUES

In order to make the hours for the staff more reasonable the city rifle range at Chipman Hill, will be open after this afternoon and will close not later than eleven o'clock at night. For the present it will also be closed for an hour at noon and at supper time.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

Transfers of real estate have been recorded as follows: St. John County. H. A. Bruce to W. P. Cotabatic, property in Simonds. S. E. Eikin to H. C. Mayes, property in Lancaster.

DIED AT MINTO

The death of Mrs. Margaret Jane O'Donnell occurred at Minto, N. B., on last Sunday in her 60th year. She was an esteemed resident of that place.

BOY WHO ESCAPED

Fred Wilson, who is in custody charged with escaping from the Boy's Industrial Home on February 28, 1914, was brought before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning and further remanded.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK ST. PATRICK'S; AND PLOT TO SLAY AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES

Anarchists Also Said to Have Planned General Looting Campaign

New York Detectives Unearth Gigantic Scheme of Murder and Pillage — Let Conspirators go so Far as to Throw Bomb in the Cathedral — Then Police Spring up on All Sides

New York, March 2.—An attempt to blow up St. Patrick's Cathedral with a bomb this morning, and the arrest of two men by detectives who had been informed for months of their activities was followed by an announcement made at police headquarters, that the arrests had blocked an anarchistic plot to kill, with bombs, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other wealthy men.

ALREADY AT WORK ON BOMBS

The next move, according to the police, was to place bombs in the home of Andrew Carnegie, the Rockefellers, and Cornelius Vanderbilt. So far had the plot progressed, according to the police, toward this end, that the manufacture of the bombs had already been started.

PANIC IN THE CHURCH AVERTED

Immediately the cathedral, in which 800 persons sat at worship, became alive with detectives whose presence had been unsuspected by the bomb-thrower.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK ST. PATRICK'S; AND PLOT TO SLAY AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES

New York, March 2.—An attempt to blow up St. Patrick's Cathedral with a bomb this morning, and the arrest of two men by detectives who had been informed for months of their activities was followed by an announcement made at police headquarters, that the arrests had blocked an anarchistic plot to kill, with bombs, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other wealthy men.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK ST. PATRICK'S; AND PLOT TO SLAY AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES

New York, March 2.—An attempt to blow up St. Patrick's Cathedral with a bomb this morning, and the arrest of two men by detectives who had been informed for months of their activities was followed by an announcement made at police headquarters, that the arrests had blocked an anarchistic plot to kill, with bombs, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other wealthy men.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK ST. PATRICK'S; AND PLOT TO SLAY AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES

New York, March 2.—An attempt to blow up St. Patrick's Cathedral with a bomb this morning, and the arrest of two men by detectives who had been informed for months of their activities was followed by an announcement made at police headquarters, that the arrests had blocked an anarchistic plot to kill, with bombs, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other wealthy men.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK ST. PATRICK'S; AND PLOT TO SLAY AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES

New York, March 2.—An attempt to blow up St. Patrick's Cathedral with a bomb this morning, and the arrest of two men by detectives who had been informed for months of their activities was followed by an announcement made at police headquarters, that the arrests had blocked an anarchistic plot to kill, with bombs, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other wealthy men.

Germans Driven Back a Mile

Paris, March 2.—Fighting in the midst of a driving rain and snow storms is in progress over a considerable section of the battlefield in France and West Flanders. In Belgium a gale swept in from the North Sea, causing much suffering among the Belgian troops, who hold a position on the coast.

DOCTOR DUVAL AND AMBULANCE SECTION NOW AT THE FRONT

St. John Men Are With Him in Battlefield Work — Letter to Wife

A letter received yesterday by Mrs. Duval, wife of Dr. J. L. Duval, captain of "A" Section, No. 1 Field Ambulance, British Expeditionary Force, the old name of "Canadian Expeditionary Force" is changed with the removal of quarters, tells of the safe arrival of himself and his men in France. The letter was dated from France, February 10, and said that the doctor and his men were all in good health. Only one member of his section had been left behind at Salisbury Plain, Ernest Earle of North End, to whom reference was made in yesterday's Times as having been injured in a motor accident.

WHEAT ADVANCES

Chicago, March 2.—The opening, which varied from 1.84 to 1/4 up, was followed by a material advance all around.