LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Walter Edgar of Bentley street, as struck and knocked down by a motor car near Morna station yesterday morning. She was carried into Harry Clarke's residence and her mother, Hartley Armstrong, went from the city and brought her down here. She was badly injured on the hip and head but not fatally. It was said the she did not the automobile because of the approaching train.

During the hearing of a case yesterday in which Patrick Keefe is charged supplying liquor, the magistrate noted that he would accept no more deposits in such cases. Howard N. Welker of Moncton, was the chief witness against Keefe but his story was not very satisfactory. Inspector Journeay gave evidence of the witness telling him where he got his liquor. An adjournment was made until Friday morning at 10.30. J. A. Barry appeared for Keefe and W. M. Ryan for the inspectors.
