BYNGS HAVE NO CHILDREN. Lady Byng is not altogether a stranger in Canada, and she told an interviewer who met the Empress of France that she had pleasant recollections of Ottawa and Quebec, which she had visited, as a little girl, when her father, Sir Richard Charles Moreton, was military secretary to the Marquis of Lorne as governor general. Lord and Lady Byng have no children, and when posing for the camera men before quitting the ship, Lady Byng remarked smilingly: "Well, here we are, the whole family." Their nices, Lady Elizabeth and Lady Mary Byng, are expected to come out later to spend the winter at Rideau Hall.
