MONCTON GETS FIELD TRIALS

A statement in a morning paper that the Olympic field trials would be held in Charlottetown is not correct. A. W. Covey announced this morning that these trials would be held in Moncton on Saturday, July 10. The sanction has just been given to Moncton, and a great afternoon of sports is expected.

CHURCH DEDICATED

The remodelled Baptist church at Meductic was dedicated on Sunday in the presence of such a large number of people that the service was held out of doors. The dedication sermon in the morning was preached by Rev. Dr. Hutchinson of St. John. In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Auckland of Woodstock preached and the service was furnished by a choir from the Woodstock Baptist church and the Devon quartette, Miss Henderson of Woodstock presiding at the organ.

NOVELTY SHOWER

A novelty shower was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McEachern, 549 Main street, in honor of Miss Lauretta Morrison, who will be a principal in an interesting event in the near future. A large basket beautifully decorated was uncovered and many useful gifts of linen, cut glass and silverware were received. An enjoyable evening was spent by all. Refreshments were served and good wishes were extended to Miss Morrison.

DEATH OF A. R. PETERSON

The death of Arthur R. Peterson, 29 Exmouth street, an employee of the N. B. Power Company, died at his home on Monday. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Herbert, Arthur and Harold; two daughters, Lillian and Gladys; and a brother, Francis of New York and Oscar of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. F. Ferguson of this city and Mrs. C. H. Peterson of Arlington, Mass. Many friends will be sorry to learn of his death. He was a general upholder of the law and was respected by all who knew him. The funeral will be held on Thursday morning.

MADE LONG JOURNEY WELL

Word received by Mrs. S. J. Aids, 66 Protection street, West St. John, tells of the arrival of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Young, and her mother, Mrs. William Treacart, safely at Berkeley, California. Mrs. Young had come to the old Carleton home to take her mother out to the Pacific Coast, there to make her future residence. They left here on May 11 and journeyed by way of Boston and Chicago and reached Berkeley nicely on May 29. Though well advanced in years, Mrs. Treacart stood the long journey well and her many friends here will be glad to know that she is greatly pleased with delightful California.

THE TRAP SHOOTERS

St. John trap shooters are watching with interest the results of the Ottawa shoot which starts today. The club president, O. J. Killian, who has won high place for the Canadian Olympic team, is at Ottawa to shoot through the Canadian championship matches and every St. John trap shooter is hoping their representative will come out on top. Tomorrow night at Glen Falls will be held the weekly shoot of the city club, there should be a good attendance as the last two shoots were enjoyed by every contestant. The evening is the nicest time to break clay targets; the light is right and it is generally calm.

LUDLOW STREET Y. P. S.

Rev. L. B. Gray, the new pastor of Waterloo street Baptist church, delivered a very fine address at a meeting of the Young People's Society of Ludlow street Baptist church last evening. His theme was "Guide Posts of Life." He presented a guide posts purity, love, prayer and service and the guide as Jesus Christ. The meeting was attended by many. Several members of the Waterloo street society were present and received a hearty welcome. The coming temperance referendum was discussed by Rev. W. R. Robinson and R. H. Parsons and a strong appeal made for all to get on the voters' list. The music of the meeting was especially good. C. E. Rupert, violinist, adding much to the enjoyment.

CASE DISCUSSED

A report in a morning paper regarding the case against Frank L. O'Brien was acquitted in the police court yesterday on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor without a license was in some respects incorrect. The report stated that Mr. O'Brien was, on the information of a man arrested on a charge of drunkenness summoned to the court. Subsequently the informant, when on the stand admitted that the information given the inspectors was untrue and that he never received any liquor from Mr. O'Brien. W. M. Ryan for the prosecution, said at yesterday's hearing that this was all the evidence the prosecution had to offer and G. Beale Logan for the defence asked for a dismissal which was granted.

AN OPEN AIR CONTEST

Michael Kelly's team and the team from the Beaconsfield school will hold their annual contest in mental arithmetic on the west side this evening to wind up the season. Mr. Kelly expresses regret that he did not meet Mr. Edgcombe, a blind member of the American press party. Alluding to a remark in the past that Mrs. Edgcombe is her husband's "right hand man." Mr. Kelly observes that the visitor is not the only blind person who can pay this tribute to his wife.

BURIED TODAY

The funeral of John W. McDuffee was held this afternoon from his late residence, 189 City Line. Service was conducted by Rev. J. H. A. Holmes and interment was in Cedar Hill.

A HAMPTON CASE

A warrant was issued yesterday afternoon by Magistrate Brewster at Hampton, for the arrest of a girl eighteen years old who was alleged to look about $300, a gold ring and a check, from relatives. Deputy Sheriff Isaac Campbell succeeded in recovering the money and stopping a $30 order from being sent away for goods, but the ring and check could not be found. However, the girl afterwards, it was said, declared that she burned the ring and check in case they would be found on her. The warrant was issued but no proceedings were started and it is understood the relatives do not wish to press the charge.

HAMPTON MEMORIAL

A meeting of the ways and means committee in connection with the erection of a war memorial at Hampton, in memory of the men of the parish who made the supreme sacrifice at the front, was held on Saturday evening. Committees from the High School Tennis Club and other organizations were present, and the matter of raising money for the memorial fund was taken up. Many suggestions were made and it was finally decided to hold a field day and entertainment on July 1. R. A. March presided at the meeting.
