

STORMY TIMES WET IN EUROPE

Trouble Over Jugo Slav Italian Treaty—Riots and Killing in Prague.

Belgrade, Nov. 20.—On the terms of the Jugo-Slav-Italian treaty becoming known here, enormous crowds of angry demonstrators demolished the cabinet council building. Two regiments of cavalry dispersed crowds marching on the Italian legation. Numerous shots were fired and many persons injured. Prague, Nov. 20.—Three days rioting culminated on Thursday in an attempt by crowds to storm the parliament buildings despite efforts by mounted police to hold them in check. Demonstrators demanded that the premier surrender a German deputy, named Boarn, who, it has been reported, spoke in a disparaging manner of the Czecho-Slovak legions. On Tuesday after a mass meeting, the German dramatic theatre was occupied by the Czechs and the statue of Joseph II was removed from the square. In retaliation the Germans demolished a Czecho school. German senators and deputies walked out of parliament as a protest. Police Inspector Svobgr was dragged from his horse during the disturbance and killed. The statue of Bismarck was paraded through the streets for hours, decked with a paper cap and inscriptions—"Shame on the Germans."

N. Y. TIMES ON INQUIRY INTO IRISH AFFAIRS

New York, Nov. 20.—(Canadian Press)—The New York Times in an editorial this morning, doubts if any benefit to Anglo-Irish relations or Anglo-American relations will come from the operations of the "American commission on Ireland," now holding hearings with Washington. It asserts that the members of the general committee are anti-English and includes few names which can be regarded as representing a pro-English sentiment. It says the minority disappears altogether in the sub-committee which is conducting the hearings. The Times says the truth is hardly likely to be elicited by a committee of whose members are at the outset biased the same way, and calls it a "packed committee." There is a section of Irish in the United States, the newspaper says, together with a number of habitual enemies of Great Britain, who will deliberately use the enquiry to promote hate instead of peace. Continuing the newspaper says: "An English enquiry into the Philippine question, or the treatment of the Haytiens for that matter, would be resented quite enough in the United States. If that inquiry were promoted by the London Saturday Night and if the members of the committee were selected persons known for their hostility to the United States, the result would hardly be such as to promote Anglo-American friendship or world peace. Whatever Americans think about Ireland, it certainly cannot be said that this commission represents the sentiment of the country."

THE BOLSHIEVIKI Enjoyed Showing Of Powerful Picture

London, Nov. 20.—The peace negotiations between Soviet Russia and Poland have been reported Saturday morning to carry the war into the neutral zone between Poland and Russia because of 'tricks' being made on the Soviet forces by General Balakovich, in command of Polish volunteer forces. London, Nov. 20.—Capture of Prokuror in Podolia, fifty miles north of Kamenetz-Podolsk, by Russian Soviet troops operating against the Ukrainians is announced. Pelinas, Nov. 20.—The Bolsheviki have resumed their attacks against the anti-Bolshevik forces in eastern Siberia and have captured Bogia on the trans-Siberian railway 2.5 miles southeast of Chila. The Soviets have ordered the wiping out of the forces of General Semenov and the late General Kappell and the overthrow of the Vladivostok government unless the latter recognizes the Soviet authority centred in Chita.

UNSETTLED IN WALL ST. TODAY

New York, Nov. 20.—The stock market was very much unsettled again today, a heavy opening giving way to further weakness, irregular recoveries following later. Yesterday's weakest features, especially steel, oils and railway equipment, showed lower recovery as was such as Crucible Steel, Mexican Petroleum and Baldwin Locomotive. Food, leather and miscellaneous specialties also went lower on renewed liquidation. The better class of rails and shippings rose one to three points but cancelled some of their gains when industrials became weaker. Public interest in support. Take in Wall street.

HOUSE SHORTAGE

British Minister of Health Attempts Explanation—A Shortage of Tradesmen—Matter of Trade Unions. London, Nov. 10.—(By Mail, Canadian Associated Press)—Why is there such a shortage of housing accommodation? Dr. Addison, Minister of Health in an article in a recent issue of the Sunday Times attempts to give the public some explanation of hundreds of thousands of families being without a home of their own. He admits that while many houses have been passed exceeding in number a quarter of a million, yet the houses themselves are only forthcoming in small quantities. "In the first place the Minister of Health points to the decrease of skilled workers in the building trade. Between 1914 and 1918 the number of bricklayers had shrunk from 116,000 to 74,000; joiners, masons and workers in subsidiary trades had shrunk in a like proportion. Buildings in the war years practically ceased, the workers being transferred to munition making. "There are not enough men in the trade to do the work; that is the first fact," continues Dr. Addison. "There are thousands of men outside the trade who are out of employment, that is the second fact. Somehow or other these two facts must be brought into relationship; and at once we are faced with the Trade Union bar. The Minister goes on to indicate how the Government has attempted negotiation with the building trade. The State has tried to employ the men in the path of the demand for labor still further. "In the face of the national demand for houses, in the face of the widespread unemployment among ex-service men and others, can any trade union maintain its restrictions? Can one class, one trade, permanently stand in the path of the community, and in its own class interest bar the way to progress, prosperity, and settlement? The State will submit to such action as saddling itself with a sectional tyranny."

WERE NOT READY YET FOR DISARMAMENT

Geneva, Nov. 20.—An international military force, with an international assembly, has been proposed to the assembly of the league of nations today by Senator Henri La Fontaine, of the Belgian delegation. He somewhat startled the world was not yet ready for disarmament. "Any fish in this river?" asked the city man. "The government stocked it with trout," replied the native. "They don't seem to come near a hook," "They do seem snarler than other fish," returned the old fellow. "I reckon maybe, they had to pass a Civil Service examination before the government could employ 'em."—Boston Transcript.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

THE GREAT LAZARO HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Eminent Spanish Tenor Replaces Anna Case, Who is Ill With Laryngitis—Louis Lelacheur Cancels Halifax Concert But Retains St. John Date at Great Cost and Risk. An ominous telegram from New York received by Louis Lelacheur yesterday morning was conclusive late last night stating that Anna Case, soprano star booked to appear at the Imperial Theatre here next Wednesday, was ill with laryngitis and probably by her physician to leave her room. The telegram was followed by long-distance phone conversations between New York and St. John in which the promoter, Louis Lelacheur, who loses in publicity, printing, etc. for both engagements approx. "only a thousand dollars. However, we can't make any promise he set about to fill the St. John date with another musical notable regardless of cost, hoping thus not to disappoint the music-loving public who have supported his efforts as generously in the past. So this forenoon at 10.30 Mr. Lelacheur received a long-distance telephone message from New York that through the combined efforts of several musical bureaus and the influence of Anna Case herself, Miss Lelacheur, a famous Spanish tenor had been induced to make the journey and fill the date here on Wednesday, 24th—the original Case booking. This was a great relief to Lelacheur, as those who know of Lelacheur's career and especially welcome to many who prefer male voices and especially new voices to the original booking has been secured. Therefore the sale and reservation of seats proceeds for next Wednesday as well as for the preceding Monday. However, misadventure will desire the return of money already expended for tickets as Lelacheur is one of the musical sensations of the day. He is usually known as "The Spanish McCormack," a second Caruso and his popularity as a high-class talking picture artist is generally admitted. However, plans have not yet been abandoned because of the lateness of the date as the concert was to be held there Monday. However, the Spaniard receives the Anna Case price of two bookings for the St. John concert alone, an expensive decision on Mr. Lelacheur's part for keep faith with his patrons in spite of the untoward circumstances.

NOTED SUCCESS OF A FORMER ST. JOHN RESIDENT

J. F. Collins, Started as Clerk, Now President of $7,000,000 Company in Denver. Friends in St. John will be interested in the success of J. Fred Collins, a former resident of this city, who has been for the last twenty years or more in Denver, Colorado. He is now president and general manager of The Mountain States Mixed Feed and Feed Yard Co. of Denver, a $7,000,000 company, which has been formed recently. He was in St. John on a visit to his old home about two years ago. Mr. Collins, after leaving the city, went to Denver where he entered the employ of J. D. Best & Co. as a clerk. Step by step he worked his way up to the position of president and general manager, and while in that position he was elected president of the Denver Grain Exchange in 1916. He is rated as one of the most successful business men of Denver. His friends in the city will wish him further success and will follow his future career with interest.

GERMANY TO IMPORT HEAVILY IN GRAIN

Declared Necessary in Order to Safeguard Bread Supply. Berlin, Nov. 20.—An official inventory of the visible supply of grain tends to show that Germany will be obliged to import 1,600,000 tons of wheat, rye, corn and barley in order to safeguard the nation's bread supply up to next midsummer. Germany, says the inventory, has been obliged to pay prices ranging from 4,000 marks to 7,000 marks a ton for foreign grain in past months, and unless the mark shows a pronounced improvement or the government is able to provide ample credit in the near future, a quota of wheat to be purchased abroad will cost 12,000,000,000 marks. An official communication says these estimates pre-suppose the retention of inland deliveries, which the National Grain Bureau has not yet definitely estimated.

FATHERS HOGAN AND CONNOLLY TO ROME

PREMIER OF THE VENETIAN GARDENS

The Latest Local Amusement Institution Opens Auspiciously—Surroundings Surprise and Delight Patrons. The opening of the Venetian Gardens is now an accomplished fact, and those who attended last evening and saw what before seen the transformation effected in the old Lyric Theatre must have been amazed and doubtless delighted. Just five weeks ago building operations were commenced, and that they were completed in so short a time and the different effects conceived and placed in position was something a little less than surprising. Last evening of course, brought its little mishaps owing to lack of the necessary preparations, and doubtless any possibility of these arising again will be smoothed out during the next few days. Under the magic touch of many clever artisans the one-time theatre has been transformed into a most attractive auditorium, probably not more than two or three in all Canada used for the same purpose excellent in the matter of polite surroundings, dainty atmosphere and good taste. Last evening's audience was large and fashionable, occupying in fact every seat in the auditorium, and apparently enjoyed fully the twenty-five dances played by the excellent orchestra engaged because of their ability to render dance music effectively. It was apparently difficult to keep quiet within the hearing of such entrancing strains played in perfect time and tune. The Venetian Gardens is without doubt a credit to the city, and fills apparently a long felt want, as it can be utilized for so many purposes besides dancing. While last evening's audience was formally dressed, it was only for the opening night, and in future doubtless street clothes will predominate or be seen exclusively. The appearance of last evening's party suggested Broadway, as each floor was filled with fashionably dressed men and women with a myriad of lights, artificially shaded in hue and yellow, as a background, a high old rose bell about twelve feet high and eight feet in diameter predominating. It might be thought necessary to close one's eyes to remember that it was not Broadway, but merely the rejuvenated Lyric Theatre, formerly Princess Theatre, and well remembered fourteen years ago as Berryman's Hall. Begin next week the Venetian Gardens will get down to its regular policy. Manager Lynwood will be congratulated on the opportunity to preside over such an attractive gathering place as the Venetian Gardens, but doubtless he will measure up fully to the requirements of the situation.
