Annual Meeting Of Playgrounds Association

Reports Submittee ow Excellent Work Accor ish During the Year-Officers ___cled

The annual meeting of the Playgrounds Association was held in the Y. M. C. A. last evening with the president, A. M. Belding, in the chair. The reports of the president, secretary and treasurer were read and adopted.

The president's report dwelt upon the development of several neighborhood playgrounds this year, and the importance of this new movement, as well as the grant for Rockwood recreation field. This, he pointed out, brought up the vital question of proper control of all the playgrounds. He said the coming year should witness a great development of the playground idea, and especially commended such work as that of the South End Improvement League. Special reference was made to the Boys' Club and its work.

The secretary, Mrs. Good, gave a comprehensive review of the year's work, and the six supervised plays.

The secretary, Mrs. Good, gave a comprehensive review of the year's work, showing that the six supervized playgrounds had been successfully conducted last summer, and the Boys' Club in the winter. The work of the Girls' Club had been taken over by the Y. W. C. A., and the Playgrounds executive rejoiced that the Y. W. C. A. work had been so successfully inaugurated. Mrs. Good's report covered the year's work, showing what had been done, and pointing out where lessons useful for future use had been learned.

Treasurer's Report. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. George Dishart, showed receipts for the year $3,320.30. This included the city grant of $2,500. The expenditure was $2,662.76, leaving a balance of $657.54. In addition to teachers' salaries during the playgrounds season and in connection with the Boys' Club, the sum of $392.72 was spent for supplies and repairs. Other items included fuel, insurance, light, rent of Boys' Club and miscellaneous expenses.

The Officers.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. M. Belding; vice-president, Captain A. J. Mulcahy; secretary, Mrs. W. C. Good; treasurer, Mrs. George Dishart; assistant secretary, Miss Goodwin; auditors, H. H. McLellan and R. S. Ritchie; additional members of the executive, Miss Grout, H. H. McLellan, Mrs. Grout, H. H. McLellan, The Miss Grout of the Boys' Club, and warm tributes were paid to the caretaker, Harry J. Scott.

Mrs. McIntyre was appointed convenor of a committee to arrange a treat for the boys early in the new year. She was also appointed convenor of a committee comprising Mrs. Mulcahy, Mrs. Belding, Mrs. Grout, H. H. McLellan, MUSIC
