KING TO WEAR FATHER'S

Special Appointments in Connection With Coronation are Made—Whirl of Social Excitement for the Next Three Weeks—Dinner to Premiers

(Canadian Press) London, May 31—Queen Mary's crown has just been completed. It is according to her own design with an elegant lace-like tracery wholly in diamonds, the Kohinoor being set in the centre.

The official regulations to govern the coronation are being gradually completed. The king yesterday made a number of special appointments of high and picturesque officials. The Duke of Northumberland, the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Abercorn and the Earl of Crawford were thus appointed respectively High Steward of England, High Constable of England, High Constable of Ireland, and Deputy Steward of Scotland.

Among the bearers of the royal regalia appear the names of Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener to carry the sword and third sword while the Duke of Roxburgh is appointed to the steward's staff.

Social Whirl The police have issued elaborate regulations to control the crowds on coronation day. With the constant arrival of foreign guests, receptions, dinners and balls are being held at the dual houses daily. The coming three weeks will be a whirl of social excitement. The Duke and Duchess of Norfolk gave a dinner and reception tonight in honor of the colonial premiers.

The American ambassador and Mrs. Herd entertained at dinner last evening a large party of diplomats and other distinguished persons. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chase, P. T. Taylor, Prof. H. C. Emery of Yale, Frederick Hale, the Russian ambassador and Countess Brockdorff, the Austrian and German ambassadors, the Duke and Duchess of Burgundy, the Duke and Duchess of Roxburgh, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, Lord and Lady Lansdowne, Lord Roberts and his daughters and Lord Kitchener.

DERBY IS WON BY FAVORITE

Sunstar Captures Classic Turf Event in Field of Twenty-six—King and Queen Present and Tens of Thousands See the Race

(Canadian Press) Epsom Downs, May 31—England's blue ribbon turf fixture, the Epsom Derby, of $25,000 for three-year-olds, distance about one mile and a half, was won today by J. B. Joel's Sunstar, the favorite. Lord Derby's Steadfast, second and Queen Mary, third. Twenty-six horses started. Sunstar, the winner, is a brown colt by Sunridge, out of Dorris. He won the 2,000 guinea stakes at Newmarket on April 28, and has been a steady favorite at 7 to 4 in the betting. Phrynos finished fourth. All Gold and Adam Beg, the only two American horses to start, were unplaced. Two lengths separated the Joel colt from Lord Derby's Steadfast at the winning post.

TRIO OF MISHAPS TO AIRMEN

Frenchman's Aeroplane is Wrecked, But He Falls Unhurt; Two Others Make a Disastrous Landing

(Canadian Press) Pisa, Italy, May 31—Accidents of a more serious nature than any which have occurred since the flight was begun marred the aviation contest today. Three of the competitors, the Frenchmen, Garros and Beaumont, and the German, Frey, all met with mishaps today which damaged their machines and Frey himself was slightly injured.

Garros, left Casine Dean Rosore, the estate of King Victor Emmanuel, before sunrise today bound for the Italian capital, the aviator flew away at a tremendous speed, but, after covering a few miles, his monoplane suddenly fell to the ground and was wrecked. Garros, however, was not hurt, and he hurried back to Pisa to await the arrival of a new aeroplane.

WOMAN DEAD IN BATH TUB; BODY EATEN BY CHEMICALS

New York Chauffeur Under Arrest in Connection With the Murder of His Young Wife

(Canadian Press) New York, May 31—The body of a woman found on Monday night in the bathtub of a vacant flat, half covered by liquid chemicals was identified yesterday at the morgue as that of Mrs. Henry Scheib, 27 years old, the wife of a chauffeur. The husband was arrested.

When Scheib was told his wife had been murdered he exclaimed, "My God! that's not my work." His story was that he and his wife had quarrelled and she had left him. To explain her absence he told the other tenants that she had gone to visit relatives in Cleveland, and although he did not occupy the rooms he continued to pay the rent in hope that she would return.

HON. JAMES HOLLY IS ILL FOR THREE WEEKS

Death Came About Noon—A Noted Man of the Province in Business and in Public Life—Funeral on Friday Afternoon

Keen regret was expressed about the city today, when it became known that after three weeks' illness, caused chiefly by trouble of the heart, Hon. James Holly, had passed away at noon. At the age of seventy-five he closed a long and honorable career as a business man and in public and private life and with a vast host of friends throughout the province by whom he was esteemed and respected.

Hon. Mr. Holly had long occupied a high position among the men of note in the province, and up to a few years ago was prominent and active in all matters of public interest and importance. He was well known as a legislator of experience and success. The funeral will take place at 2:30 p. m. on Friday next from his late residence, 188 Douglas avenue.

FEARFUL DEATH FOR PILGRIMS

Volcano Belches Forth Lava and Many Japanese Are Caught in Death-Dealing Stream

(Canadian Press) Victoria, B. C., May 31—News was brought from Japan by the Canadian Maru yesterday that when the annual Festival of the Shrine, on the summit of Mount Fuji, was held on May 8 and several hundred pilgrims who had ascended to the shrine were returning, the volcano erupted and there was serious loss of life.

A tremendous report was felt as far distant as Tokio and was followed by a column of lava and smoke rising several hundred feet and the pilgrims were showered with molten lava.

Some corpses were found at the summit after the eruption, shrouded up by the red hot lava. Searching parties found many bodies with their clothing, hair and portions of limbs burned away.

HE COULD NOT WORK OUT TWO TIMES FOUR

Lockhart Boy's Case in Police Court Today—Let go With Father After a Lecture

Parents of wayward boys would have profited by being in the police court this morning and hearing the lecture on the boy problem that was given by Magistrate Ritchie to the father of Arthur Lockhart, the twelve year old lad that was arrested on Tuesday on charges of stealing and obtaining goods under false pretences.

"These people that come to court and say 'I can't do anything whatever with my boy,' make the trial," said the judge. "There is no need of me to be in court. If you will let me have a chance of seeing a little more of your boys, I will be able to tell the result of two times four."

This is one of the most shocking cases of ignorance that has been seen in this court for some time," said the magistrate, "and will have to be in court. In the meantime you will be sent below and you will have a chance of seeing a little more of your boys, I will be able to tell the result of two times four."
