LOCAL NEWS

FOR GOOD SHEPHERD.
The collection taken up in the Cathedral yesterday for the Monastery of the Good Shepherd amounted to $650.45.

DEATH OF CHILD.
Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Davis, of 208 Victoria street, will sympathize with them in the death of their infant daughter, Emily E., which occurred today.

TROUBLE WITH CABLE.
The New Brunswick Telephone Company is having considerable trouble with the submarine cable which crosses the harbor. The trouble is due to the freshets. There is only a partial phone service to the West Side today. The company hopes to have the trouble remedied by night.

MAIN STREET PAVING.
Preparatory work is being carried on at the Indian town and of Main street preliminary to the street paving operations for which the contract has been let. Lines are being run by the city engineer to establish exact location and the grades and, meanwhile, a start has been made in resetting the curbing.

HOLY NAME DAY.
Yesterday was the monthly Communion Sunday for the men of the Holy Name Society of the Cathedral parish. At the early morning mass a large number of the members received Holy Communion in a body, making a very edifying sight. Last evening after vespers Rev. William M. Duke, chaplain, spoke to the men at their monthly meeting. At mass yesterday His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc referred with pleasure to the increasingly large number of men frequently receiving Holy Communion.

ARCHIBALD CAPSON.
At his residence, 100 Chesley street, after a brief illness, Archibald Capson, second eldest son of the late Archibald and Isabelle Capson, passed away, leaving his wife, three daughters—Janie, Pearl and Ada—and one son, Harold; also three brothers—William Capson of Autumn street, Samuel and George of Chesley street; and four sisters, two in the United States, and Mrs. Geo. Titus of Chesley street and Mrs. John Cummings of Rockland road. A large circle of friends and relatives also mourn his loss.

MRS. FRAN KUDELL.
Many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Frank Kudell, which occurred yesterday at her home, 4 Summer street, West St. John. Besides her husband and one child she leaves two brothers, George Marquis in England and Henry Marquis with the Royal Flying Corps in France, four sisters, Mrs. A. F. Turner, Mrs. C. Kendrew, Mrs. A. Bridge and Mrs. J. Walters, all of this city. The funeral will take place from St. Jude's church tomorrow afternoon.

FERRY BOAT WAS LATE.
In order to adjust the ferry service to the daylight saving time, without hardship to the employees, the ferry steamer continued on the run until the usual hour on Saturday night and made her first trip on Sunday morning according to the old time. The change was made at the end of the day when the service stopped according to daylight time. A large rearrangement caused something of a mix-up among the early patrons of the ferry, chiefly longshoremen returning from or on the way to their work, many of whom had an hour's wait for the first trip.

LIQUOR CASES AND OTHERS IN COURT

Report of Trouble With Some Soldiers in Brussels Street Early This Morning

Eight prisoners appeared before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. In six of the cases those on the prisoners' bench were charged with drunkenness or else having liquor in their possession. Thomas Zed, John Randal, Samuel Lewis and George Moses were before the court on charge of drinking in a public place—the Loch Lomond road—while the latter also answered to the charge of having a bottle of liquor in his possession. They were told that they were liable to a fine of $80 and were sent below. U. J. Sweeney appeared on behalf of the other four.

Edward O'Brien and Pte. J. Short, both returned soldiers, pleaded guilty to being members of a noisy crowd in Brussels street early this morning. They were charged with using obscene language and shouting. The magistrate asked Short what he was doing out at the late hour and he said that he was on his way to the armory to stay for the night. He only recently returned from the front and as it was late he did not want to arouse the folks at home.

The Magistrate: "Do you mean to say that you could get into the armory between twelve and one o'clock? What kind of discipline do you call that?"

Policeman Lindsay and County Policeman Saunders gave evidence. The latter said that there were six in the crowd and they were proceeding up Brussels street singing and shouting. When approached by the police one of the crowd remarked "This is a dead town and we came from a live town in France." The two policemen then placed the prisoners under arrest but four of the party got away. "As we were arresting these two," said Policeman Saunders, "the other four stoned us."

As the court was enquiring Short and O'Brien the former intervened and said "You certainly give the soldiers a good name here." The magistrate ordered Short to be taken below, saying, "Don't show him any privileges, Sergeant." Short—"I am not looking for privileges."

Another returned soldier wearing a gold stripe on his left arm showing that he had been wounded once and displaying a military medal on his tunic pleaded guilty to drunkenness. Another prisoner, a civilian, also pleaded guilty to drunkenness. Both were fined $8 each.

Harry McAndrews, a soldier, pleaded guilty to drunkenness and also to having liquor in his possession. Policeman McLeese testified and the prisoner was told he was liable to a heavy fine and was sent below.

POTATOES AT $2.50.

Frederick Gleason, Saturday—Potatoes were lined up to the curb in abundance, and the price was started at $3 a barrel. It did come down a little before the farmers got started for home. If you were a good walter you landed a barrel in your cellar at $2.50.

FAMINE IN FRANCE UNLESS SACRIFICES HERE ARE GREATER

Senator Colby, Who is to Speak Here, Addresses Large Ottawa Gathering—Just Back From War Zone

Ottawa, April 15—Hon. Everett Colby, senator for New Jersey, who accompanied a senatorial party on a trip to the front a few weeks ago to learn at first hand the conditions under which the war was being fought in France, at a meeting held under the joint auspices of the Ontario organization of resources committee and the Canada Food Board, told a large audience in the Russell Theatre yesterday afternoon that there would be absolute famine in France in a few months unless Canada and the United States made greater sacrifices than they have yet done.

Senator Colby spoke of the agricultural situation in Great Britain as "critical" and "distressing," though better than that in France, where cattle were being slaughtered for lack of food, and women hitched themselves to plows in place of oxen. He said that lack of seed and fertilizers and lack of labor reduced the last harvest to one-third of normal.

Mr. Colby is to speak in St. John.

YOUNG SOLDIER THIRD TIME IN CASUALTY LIST

Harold Lindsay Only Twenty Years Old But Has Been Through a Lot

H. L. Lindsay of 386 Union street received official word from Ottawa on Saturday stating that his son, Harold L. Lindsay, had been officially reported admitted to No. 29 General Hospital, Camiers, with gunshot wound in right leg. Harold Lindsay was but seventeen years of age when he enlisted in the ranks of the 8th battalion. He crossed to England with this regiment and was later transferred into an Ontario battalion. This is his third time in the casualty list. The first time he was slightly wounded at the third battle of Ypres; the second time it was at the Somme when he was buried three times, severely gassed and shell shocked. This experience necessitated a long stay in hospitals in England and Scotland but his youth won and he recovered sufficiently to return to the front only to be hit again. He is now in his twentieth year.

Earl Grey's Estate.
London, April 15—The late Earl Grey left nearly two hundred and sixty thousand pounds. The will bequeathed the property at Prince Rupert, B. C., to the present earl and his late wife's two daughters.
