The University Library contains 10,000 volumes, 600 of which were a gift from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. Valuable additions have, from time to time, been made to the library by the following donors: The Government of the State of New York, the University of Oxford, the University of Cambridge, Trinity College, Dublin, the Smithsonian Institution, Columbia College, the First Bishop of Toronto, General Sir Henry Lefroy, the widow of the late Rev. W. Ripley, the late Rev. E. B. Pusey, D.D., the Rev. J. E. Mayor (late Librarian of the University of Cambridge), the late Rev. John Smithurst, the Rev. C. J. S. Bethune (from the library of the Second Bishop of Toronto), the late Rev. Prof. Boys, the Royal Irish Academy, the associates of the late Rev. Dr. Bray, and others.

The Library is open during Term fixed hours, when the Librarian will issue books to Graduates and Undergraduates.

All books must be returned to the Library on or before each of the four days: March 24th, June 24th, September 30th, and December 24th.

A fine of twenty-five cents for every folio or quarto volume, and of fifteen cents for every volume of a smaller size, not so returned, must be paid; the fine to be repeated fortnightly until the volume is returned.

Books marked as first-class books must be returned within a fortnight from the time they are taken out of the Library. A fine of twenty-five cents must be paid for every first-class book not so returned, the fine to be repeated weekly. Books on the curriculum of any Faculty are included in the first-class books, but the Librarian may extend the time for such books to four weeks.
