

Medicine and Dentistry, in April; for degrees in all Faculties, in October.

Graduates not qualified as above to become members of Convocation, and other friends of the University, may become Associate Members of Convocation by the same annual payment of five dollars. All candidates for associate membership must be approved by the Executive Committee of Convocation.

Associates have the right of speaking, but not of voting, at meetings of Convocation. They also elect annually a member of the Corporation. (See above.)

Local Associations of Convocation have been formed in the chief centres of Ontario. Members and associates have equal privileges in the government of the Local Associations. Each Local Association elects one member to represent it upon the Executive Committee of Convocation.

There are at present about 250 members and associates of Convocation.

The Chancellor of the University is elected for a period of five years by the members of Convocation in good standing.

The Vice-Chancellor of the University is the Provost of Trinity College.

The Caput consists of the Vice-Chancellor and four members of Convocation, to be elected by Convocation at the annual October meeting for conferring degrees.

The Degrees of the University are open to all persons without any religious test, except in case of Degrees in Divinity, candidates for which degrees are required to subscribe to a declaration of membership in the Church of England, and to the three Articles of the XXXVIth Canon.

Subjects of Her Majesty are required to make a declaration of allegiance before proceeding to their degrees.

Boards of Study in the different Faculties, consisting of ex officio and elected members, advise the Corporation, through the Executive Committee, as to the nomination of Examiners, changes in the Curriculum, etc., in their respective departments.
