THE BALLOT AND HOW TO USE IT.

The local Tory organs have been publishing what they wish the electors to believe is a representation of the ballots to be used at the different polling places on Tuesday next, but their ballots are altogether unlike those which are officially sanctioned and are misleading. The genuine ballots are to be, in form, size and general appearance of the control of the c ance, as shown below, with exception of the cross mark, (X) which each elector is to put upon them after the presiding officer has given it to him, and he has retired to the private compartment for that pur-
