

GRIP CONVALESCENCE

There's nothing better than Scott's Emulsion after the grip. When the fever is gone the body is left weak and exhausted; the nervous system is completely run down and vitality is low.

Two things to do: give strength to the whole body and new force to the nerves. Scott's Emulsion will do it; contains just what the worn-out system needs.

Rich blood, healthy flesh, resistive force, more and better nourishment are what Scott's Emulsion supplies to the convalescent.

Scott's Emulsion is the original and has been the standard emulsion of cod liver oil for nearly thirty years. Why buy the new, untried, cheap emulsions or so called wines, cordials and extracts of cod liver oil, when you can buy what is sure to help you?

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

Burial of Rev. H. N. Parry.

The remain<sup>s</sup> of our lamented and esteemed brother, Rev. H. N. Parry, who died so suddenly of heart failure at Gaspereaux on the 18th inst., were laid to rest in Island Cemetery, Port Maitland, on the afternoon of the 21st. Before interment an appropriate memorial service was held in the meet-house at Maitland. The following ministers were in attendance: J. H. Saunders, D. D., Ohio; E. J. Grant, Arcadia; D. Price, Milton; J. Miles, Chegoggin; Mr. Wright, Hebron; M. W. Brown, Supt. Home Missions; Isaiah Wallace, Wolfville; W. J. Rutledge, Port Maitland. Dr. Saunders made the principal address, basing his remarks upon the phrase, "A servant of Jesus Christ," Rom. 1:1. Very fitting it was that Bro. Saunders should take such part in the service as it was he who, thirty-one years ago, when serving the Bay View church as pastor, had helped and encouraged the deceased to decide to preach the gospel. The address was tender in its tone, inspiring in its teachings, and justly appreciative in its references to the character and labors of the departed. Each of the other ministers also paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of our sainted brother. The circumstance was emphasised that Bro. Parry had fallen in death without the shadow of a suspicion as to his moral life and conduct having ever rested upon him. Rev. Isaiah Wallace assuredly had the unction of the Spirit as he prayed for our sorely afflicted sister Parry, for the fatherless children and for the sorrowing church in the Gaspereaux Valley. The following beautiful selections were sung during the service: "The Lord is my Shepherd," (female trio); "Looking this way," solo and quartette; "I know that my Redeemer liveth," (quartette). The service throughout was dignified, sympathetic and impressive.

The pastors had designated four of their number to act as pall-bearers, and at five o'clock they gently lowered into the lap of mother earth, the mortal part of him whom they had esteemed both for his own and for his work's sake. From that grave we turned away humbly confident that,

"Standeth God within the shadow,
Keeping watch above His own."

W. J. RUTLEDGE.

Port Maitland, Nov. 24, 1903.

Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior, has given orders for the abandonment of the Northwest Mounted Police post at Wells, on the Dalton trail. The Alaska boundary tribunal decision moves the international boundary at the point in question seven miles further inland than it was under the provisional arrangement. The Canadian flag has been hoisted on Herschell Island.

Personal.

Word has been received by Capt. Robert and Mrs. Dewis, of Advocate Harbour, Nova Scotia, that their daughter, Mrs. Mack B. Shaw, of San Bernardino, California, has just had to submit to one of the severest operations known to surgery in order to save her life. The result hung in the balance for a whole day but by the heroic effort of her physician, Dr. John A. Calliver, by the blessing of God, she was spared to her large family. It is confidently believed that this fearful ordeal through which Mrs. Shaw has passed was directly the result of disease conditions developed at Vizianagram, India, and which compelled Mr. and Mrs. Shaw to retire from foreign mission service in 1895.
