WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 27.

A Straw Ticket.

Those who have been hoping for a strong Opposition ticket and a lively campaign are disappointed at the appearance of Mr. Chas. Armstrong and Mr. George G. Goss, who are, in all probability speaking, men of straw, incapable of raising the campaign into the dignity of a square fight. It is still a one-sided contest. We suppose Mr. Armstrong comes out as a job. One more is wanted, with these gentlemen and Mr. Maher, to make a full County ticket, and we thought that ex-Minister Andy Gorman might be persuaded to be the other member of the quartet. The Opposition, so far as St. John is concerned, was headed by a great fourth of trumpets, and has faded down to a straw ticket and alliance broken. One of the candidates, Mr. Maher, can talk if he would, but he doesn't seem eager to respond to Mr. King's challenge. He is not called upon as he was hopeless in the House. Perhaps there was not a single Mr. Maher held a seat in the House, a while Mr. Maher passed, from the incorporation of a skating rink to the altering of the ambiguous phrasing of an old statute, on which Mr. Maher did not make from one to five little speeches in his dignified and pleasing manner. Why, he is silent now? Now Mr. Gorman can talk, and it is nominated, will talk, and we hope he will consent to be added to the Opposition ticket.

A Word for the Boys.

There is not, within the limits of this city, a public place where children can play without trespassing on the rights of others. The schoolhouses are not open to the public, and the streets are not open to the public. The schoolhouses have no playgrounds, and the streets are not open to the public. The Closing Exercises at St. Allison.

The closing exercises at St. Allison, from St. John, N. B., were held on Friday evening, March 26th, at 8 o'clock. The exercises were held in the schoolhouse, and were attended by a large number of the community. The exercises were held in the schoolhouse, and were attended by a large number of the community. General Convention of the Repeal Party of King's County.

The General Convention of the Repeal Party of King's County was held at Hampton Court House to-day. The parish meetings for the election of delegates were held on Saturday, 26th inst. In response to the posters freely circulated in the parish of Gardville (Paspoube) a solitary elector put in an appearance. In the parish of Sussex the meeting was called at Fairweather's Drug Store and transacted its business with closed doors. On Monday our informant spent the entire day hunting around the Station and "Exchange," but failed to find out the names of the delegates appointed, or find any man who was present at the meeting. At a meeting held in the parish of Havelock on Saturday to appoint delegates to the Repeal Convention, only four electors attended. Three of these elected themselves delegates and the other left in disgust.

Miss Ida Savory, the actress, recently ill of diphtheria, has entirely recovered.
