KILBANE LOSES TO GEO. CHANEY

Featherweight Champion Soundly Beaten-Reich Quits to Tom Cowler

Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 29-Young Chaney of Baltimore outboxed and outpointed Harry Kilbane in the featherweight championship, in an eight-round bout here tonight in the opinion of a majority of the New York morning newspaper writers. Chaney weighed 122 pounds and the champion 125. The Baltimore boxer took the aggressive at the start, and although not as clever as Kilbane, often sent in blows so fast that the titleholder was frequently forced to clinch. Chaney took the first, third, fourth and seventh rounds and Kilbane the second, and eighth. The fifth and sixth were even. The best blow Kilbane landed was in the second round, when he placed a right smash to the left eye. In the last round Kilbane tried to score a knockout, but Chaney fought back hard. Jeff Smith of Bayonne knocked out Jack Coyne of Orange, N. J., in the second round. Smith weighed 157 and Coyne 155. In a scheduled eight-round bout Tom Cowler, the English heavyweight, won in the third from Al. Reish of New York who was disqualified when his seconds sprayed him with water while on the canvas. Cowler weighed 212 pounds and Reish 208. Reish did well for a minute of the first round, but took the defensive thereafter. He was floored twice in the second round, the bell ringing as he counted himself out in the second knockdown. In the third round he went down from a light jush blow. Gene Tunney, light heavyweight champion of the American Expeditionary Force, scored a knockout over Bob Pearce of Chicago in the second round of their eight-round match. Tunney weighed 175 pounds and Pearce 166. The bell saved Pearce in the first round, when he was down from a right uppercut to the head. It sounds there in the sponge in the next round after the second knockdown. Illness prevented Harry Greb of the United States Navy from meeting Augie Ratner, the American Expeditionary Force middleweight champion.

JIMMY WILDE IS MATCHED.

Will Box Asher Jan. 8.

Jimmy Wilde is to box "Babe" Asher, of Milwaukee, in St. Louis, 8 rounds, on Jan. 8. Wilde is to get $5,000. Asher is to make 116 pounds ringside. It is a chance for the little Welsh wizard to redeem himself. Asher was in the American army. Madden has backed away from the Levinsky bout at the Arena, New York, after noon, and "Wild" Bert Kenny has been substituted for the United Veterans' League show. He fought Dempsey ten rounds two years ago, and has a decision over Levinsky. Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion, engaged in 25 bouts, big and small, this year, the total gate aggregating $500,000, with Leonard's share approximately $200,000.

"Duke" McCurry turned out with De La Salle yesterday, and his presence put a lot of life into the work-out. McCurry will play for Toronto Canteen Club Juniors this season. The Hamilton Tigers are anxious to secure "Goldie" Rodgers as coach, but to date the well-known professional player has not accepted terms. Jack Walker, the hook check expert, has been elected captain of the Seattle team in the Pacific Coast League. Foyston and Rowe were nominated for the position, but dropped out when Walker's name was mentioned. Tommy McCarthy, O.H.A. out-cent, is now a full-fledged hockey
