Board of Trad brought out a largenumber of the business men of the town. The President, G. L. Parsons, reviewed the operations of the past year, inluding the successful reorganization of the board, which now has a membership of 150, with a revenue adequate to the needs of a live organization.

Recommendations by Committee
The F.nance Comm. title last evening recommended that the city wood be sold wholesale. Two other recommendations are that the City Planning Commission be requested to have Mr.
Thomas Adams of the Commission of Couservation come here and advise in the selection of property for a new cemetery and that the Salvation Army be voted a grant of $100.

Valentine Party
A very successful Valentine party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wolf, of 18 St. Ledger St., last evening when about fifty young people spent a most enjoyable time. Singing, dancing and splendid refreshments featured the evening and had it not been for a neighbouring rooster, who sounded the note that morn was near, the party would undoubtedly be going yet.
