

Agriculture,

	Reign.	Chap.	Section
If offender be an alien, or squatter, or has no means of paying the penalty he may be committed to gaol.	10 & 11 Geo. IV. }	1	5
In case of damage done by cattle, &c. party injured how to proceed.	..	..	6
The matter to be determined by arbitrators : Arbitrators how appointed.	..	..	..
Justices of the Peace may issue Subpœnas for attendance of witnesses before arbitrators.	..	..	7
— to keep registers of all such proceedings for damages.	..	..	8
Penalty on persons allowing horses or other animals to stray on property of other persons, or on highways, beaches, &c.	..	..	9
Animals straying on highways, &c. may be seized by a surveyor or overseer of highways, or by any freeholder.	..	..	..
Who shall give notice to the owner, or at the church door, or other most public place.	..	..	..
Notice being given, animal may be sold, if not claimed.	..	..	..
Proceeds how disposed of.	..	..	..
Justices of the Peace may on complaint proceed summarily, and in what manner, against persons keeping vicious dogs, horses or other animals.	..	..	10, 13
Penalty on persons allowing stallions or rams to run at large.	..	..	11, 12
— on persons whose hogs or poultry shall do damage on land of other persons.	..	..	14
Mode of proceeding in such cases.	..	..	..
Justices of the Peace in Quebec and Montreal, in their weekly sittings, may establish Pounds for stray cattle, &c. and appoint a Pound-keeper.	..	..	15
Pounds how established and kept in Three Rivers, William Henry, and other boroughs and villages, and in country parishes, seigniories, &c.	..	..	16, 17
Stray cattle, &c. to be impounded.	..	..	18