Running for money... Mississauga Track and Field Club athletes turned out in hordes to participate in Run-a-thon 1973, a province-wide project to raise funds for athletics. Top MTFC performance in Saturday's Run-a-thon came from Tim Lane, who ran nine miles in an hour.

Mississauga duo aid cross-country success

CINCINNATI, Ohio — Mississauga Track and Field Club runners Debbie Schulte and Cathy Dill helped Ontario to the overall team championship of the one-day international Champion of Champions cross-country meet here Sunday.

Runners from Ontario and Quebec matched abilities against strong U.S. contingents chosen from Ohio and Michigan.

Miss Schulte, who became the youngest girl ever to win an Eastern Canadian midget title 10 days ago, ran what coach Ian Costello described as "probably her best race of the season" for a photo-finish second place over a tough 2-mile course.

"Debbie sprinted the final 300 yards," said Costello, the distance running expert of the MTFC who got the nod to coach the Ontario A team in this annual cross-country extravaganza.

Cathy Dill, also of Mississauga, came 20th in a big and experienced field that contested the open women's race.

Ontario claimed top honours by taking two of three team trophies.

The block and pre-painted steel building, 130 feet by 220 feet, will be a welcome addition to the present athletic facilities in the area.

The $350,000 project will generate 1,000 man-days of employment at a per cent cost of $90,000. Target date for completion is May 31, 1974.

Loans from the federal governments fund carry an incentive feature of forgiveness of all direct on-site labour costs incurred during the winter months and 50 per cent of labour costs during the summer months.
