

Ottawa, 18th September, 1909.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 14th instant, and previous correspondence, I beg to say that you may furnish the boards and shingles therein asked for to Peter Francis, Sr., Peter Peters, John William (Snake) Peters, Widow Copage, Teddy Nowcoat, Peter Labobe and Teddy Peters. There seems to be a confusion of names in your letter and it is possible that the man mentioned as Teddy Peters is also known as Theddy Nowcoat. Your letter would have been more easily understood had you made a list of the names, and stated the quantity of shingles and lumber after each name.

Your obedient servant.

Asst. Secretary.
