and the relation between science and economic growth. A further ministerial meeting on science is planned for 1965.

Canadian participation in the regular activities of the OECD continued to expand during 1963. By means of the extensive committee structure of the OECD, covering a wide range of economic activities, officials and business, labour and university representatives are able to discuss questions of mutual interest with their counterparts from other member countries.

Communiqué

The Ministerial Council of the OECD held its annual meeting in Paris on November 19 and 20, 1963, under the chairmanship of the Honourable Halvard Lange, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Norway, and reviewed the economic prospects for its 20 member countries and their economic relations with the rest of the world.
