

taste as the cook ;—scraps from the old people's table ;— at the sugaring parties ;— as to clothing and sleeping ;— what happened to a young Sister who took her bed ;— Mother Caron's pious subterfuges ;— her address to novices (1874) : take up your Cross! Mother Caron carried her Cross.

CHAPTER XVI

MOTHER CARON AND THE PRACTICE OF RELIGIOUS VIRTUES :

d) Her Charity towards the Poor and the Unfortunate....188

What was her love for the poor ;— how faith is the basis of charity ;— her idea of the importance of charity to the poor ;— she never refused any one ;— she deprived herself ;— instances given ;— her charity towards the most miserable, and those who are guilty ;— various instances ;— a note concerning the Deaf and Dumb Institute ;— she became the advocate of those who had committed offences against the Community ;— her adoptions : instances given ;— her manner of making collections ;— her well known charity increases her influence a hundredfold ;— with political men ;— her delicacy in the art of giving without humiliating the recipient ;— her charity towards the rich ;— she never put out of their own class those whom she assisted ;— testimony of Mgr. Joseph Larocque.

CHAPTER XVII

MOTHER CARON AND THE PRACTICE OF RELIGIOUS VIRTUES :

e) Her Charity towards her Cooperators in good works...206

Another chapter on charity ;— what Mother Caron