

On November 18th, exactly a month after Lieut.-General Currie had taken over the command of the Passchendaele front, the 3rd and 4th Divisions in the line were relieved and began their return to the Lens front. Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry has made a lot of history since then, and some day we shall be able to tell it.