

the High Priest and Secretary ; to keep a regular account of all receipts and disbursements which shall be produced and ready for inspection by the Audit, or other Special Committee, at all reasonable and necessary times, or when ordered at any regular Convocation.

XIV.

No unaffiliated companion shall be entitled to visit this Chapter more than twice in each year.

XV.

In speaking to any question before the Chapter, every companion shall respectfully address the chair, confining his remarks to the question, and avoiding personalities, and no companion shall be allowed to speak more than once upon a subject, unless by permission of the officer presiding, or in cases where explanation is necessary.

XVI.

No By-law shall be suspended, amended, or repealed nor shall any new By-law be enacted without the consent of two-thirds of the companions present at a meeting specially called for that purpose ; in which case nine members to form a quorum.

XVII.

These By-laws shall be signed by all the members of this Chapter and all matters not particularly provided for therein, shall be regulated by the Constitution of the Grand Chapter of Nova Scotia, and the general regulations and ancient usages of the Order.

Approved August 9th, 1877.

(Signed.) BENJAMIN CURREN,
Grand High Priest.

Attest,
(Signed) JAMES GOSSIP,
Grand Secretary.
