

TABLE OF CONTENTS

III

	PAGE
drye for Montreal in 1740 in the spring—His return to Fort La Reine in the autumn of 1741—Sends his two sons to the Rocky Mountains in 1742—Difficulties with his outfitters	102
22.—Voyage of Chevalier de La Vérendrye and his brother to the Rocky Mountains—From April 29th, 1742 to July 2nd, 1743	107
23.—Father Claude Godefroy Coquart, S.J., 1743-1744	116
24.—Return of the Explorer to Montreal in the fall of 1743—His nobility of character and his integrity	118
25.—Tardy justice—Promotion—His sickness—His death	119
26.—The sons of La Vérendrye—Names of the forts	122
27.—Remarks	126
28.—Testimony of Mr. Margry	128
29.—Discovery of Fort St. Charles—Report of Historical Society of St. Boniface	129
30.—To the Great Discoverer, Ode of Armand Chaussegros Honor the Heroes, by Wm. Murray	153 156
31.—Notes on the Maps relating to the History of the North-West	157
32.—List of the La Vérendrye's companions as far as at present known	166
33.—Report of the voyage undertaken by Chevalier de La Vérendrye with one of his brothers in quest of the Western Sea	168
34.—Chief authorities consulted	178