

- SUDAN.—Mossi Children, 17.—A Sudanese Station, 20. Station of Kati : Missionaries and Natives, 221.—Missionary on a journey, 327.—A Naba or Sudan Chief, 330.—Type of Naba 361.
- NYASALAND.—A Victim of chiefs in Olden Days, 42. First buildings at Ntakataka, 146 —A bridge over the Nazipulu River. 140.—In a boat on the Nyassa. Father Marsan, 355.—Woman making flour, 357.
- TANGANIKA.—Seminary Chapel, 234.—A fine spring dried up, 36.—Natives of Tanganika, 345.—Woman grinding Manioc, 347.—We go along the villages, 350.
- UPPER CONGO.—King With His Court, 85.—A fine Altar, 90. Natives of a Mission in Upper Congo, 280.—Our First Installation, 333.—Costume of banana tree fastened by a string around the body, 335.—Sleeping Sickness, 365.
- MERIDIONAL NYANZA.—A Drummer, 120.—A Sultan, 377.
- SAHARA.—Young Mussulman girl dressed in her finest attire, 215.
- SCHOLASTICATE OF CARTHAGE (Tunis).—Canadian Students, 14.
- MISCELLANEOUS—The Beginning of a Mission, 53.—Village and Alley With Caoutchouc trees, 67.—Sister St. Philippe With her Native Novices, 74.—The yard of a Mission, 228.—Carthage, (Tunisie) : The Metropolitan Basilica of St Louis, 234.—Cardinal Lavignerie, 290.—Fr. J. B. Dagenais, 292.—Fr. E. Michaud, 294.—Fr. D. Roy, 295.