OUT-OF-TOWN BUSINESS DELAYED

ON ACCOUNT OF WIPE TROUBLE

The first question to be decided," said Mr. Justice pannet on, after summarizing the facts, "is whether the Compensation Act applies in a case such as the present one. A municipal corporation can be subject to this law for all things which it does of a nature appertaining to the industrial domain, but I cannot see that all the operations conducted with a view to the said Mr. Justice Her owner is Jacob Abraham. Molly's hoof was trapped in a frog some time ago. A veterinary amputated it and Jake framed up a wooden leg for her. She learned to handle it splendidly.

A day or two log Molly was led to the hydrant to be watered. The hydrant was frozen and Jake huilt a bonfire around it with straw. Molly drew

The time to time did little repair jobs on the station and that he did such work as a laborer. This work, whatever its nature, was not done on an industrial whatever its nature, was not done on an industrial building. Whilst doing these little jobs, plaintiff did not exercise the trade of workman, but simply as late Major Thomas Beattle.

Under the circumstances, the Compensation Act does not apply; as there is no fault laid at the door of the defendant, there is no reason to examine whether plaintiff was himself guilty of fault. The action was dismissed with costs."

AN INSURANCE DISPLAY.

The only insurance company having an exhibit at the Motor Show which has just closed was the London and Lancashire Guarantee and Accident Company Their display consisted of a nicely fitted up stand where literature, bearing the famed red seal, the trade the famed red seal, the trade the famed red seal the trade the trade the famed red seal the trade t mark of the company, was much in evidence. Under the direction of Mr. D. Stuart Macleod every visitor to the show was made welcome to this stand. able agents for the company passed out the booklets, blotters and pamphlets and in this way impressed the merits of the company. This company has its head-quarters in Toronto, but the Montreal office was a company of the Montreal of the Mo chiefly interested in this move. While they accen-tuated the insurance of automobiles their manifold policies which cover accidents and specified diseases as well as all sicknesses were explained and the way as well as all sicknesses were capitally as the company solution of the state of the solution prompt and liberal settlement of claims. Mr. Colin E. Sword is the manager for Montreal and the Eastern section of the Dominion and his untiring energy has kept the company's record up to the high water mark separate ways. Mr. Sword has made a study of insurance in all its branches. The "red seal" is the stamp of kept the company's record up to the high water mark all its branches, .
