effort should be spared to make it a success. In this respect it seemed as though they were successful, be-yond their own most sanguine ex-pectations. It is estimated that not less than 1500 people were pre-sent, and two or three hundred more sought admission, but could not the players. Several very hand-some prizes had been donated by kind friends. During the progress of the play, a good vocal and in-strumental programme was furnish-d by very fine local talent. During the evening refreshments and a number of boys from Belmont school, under the special direction of their teacher, Mr. R. J. Louis Cud-dihy. A well trained orchestra dis-coursed some fine selections through-out the evening. Refreshments were served and the entertainment closed with an address by the Rev. Father Ethelgert, O.F.M., director of the Fraternity. There were present Rev. Father Holland, of St. Ann's and Eathers Christopher and Celestin.
